TRAINING CAMP
HISTORY

THE STEELERS have held their annual training camp at several locations throughout club history before settling on their current camp home at Saint Vincent College. The 2016 season marks the 51st consecutive year that the Steelers have held their preseason training camp in Latrobe, Pa. The Steelers' 51-year tenure at Saint Vincent College ranks second (tied with Minnesota) in the NFL for training camp longevity, trailing only the Green Bay Packers, who have held their preseason camp at St. Norbert College in DePere, Wisc., for 59 years. The final two weeks of the Steelers' 1966 training camp were held at Saint Vincent College after beginning camp at the University of Rhode Island.

The Steelers first full camp at Saint Vincent College took place in 1967.

The following is a complete list of places where the Pittsburgh Steelers have held their training camps, along with the years they were there:

PLAYING SURFACE: The turf is a blend of four varieties of Kentucky Bluegrass, covering just over two acres. The soil is a twelve inch, sand-based root zone, meeting USGA specifications for particle size. Under the root zone approximately 40 miles of ¾ inch piping heat the soil. Below the heating system there is a four inch layer of pea gravel which contains drain pipes that empty into a 22-inch collector pipe surrounding the perimeter of the field.

HEINZ KETCHUP

Bottles Facts: The bottles are exact replicas—down to the embossed "57" on the bottle's neck—of the Heinz Ketchup 14 ounce glass bottle. Each bottle includes 8,000 pounds of fiberglass, 375 feet of neon tubing and 20,500 light-emitting diodes (LEDs). Each Heinz Ketchup Bottle measures 35 feet X 9 feet and each weighs 8,000 pounds, both totaling 16,000 pounds, the equivalent of 53—300 pound NFL linemen. If the Heinz Ketchup bottles were filled with Heinz Ketchup, they would contain 1,664,000 fluid ounces each. That is enough to give each person seated at Heinz Field at least one 14-ounce bottle of ketchup to take home. If both bottles were emptied, the entire football field would be covered in 3/4 of an inch of ketchup. Approximately 4,500 footballs could fit into each scoreboard ketchup bottle.

Interviews are prohibited inside the team's cafeteria. Media members are prohibited from entering the players'/ coaches' dormitory or locker room at any time.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS Media Guidelines

UPMC Rooney Sports Complex Practice Field Access

Credentialed print and electronic media are allowed to watch Steelers practices in their entirety. All media must be at field level. Media are prohibited from watching practice from the hillside without prior approval from the team's media relations department. Videotaping any portion of practice from the hillside or other remote locations is strictly prohibited. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

All photographers (still and video) are allowed to tape warm-ups and individual position drills. Photographers are prohibited from taping any one-on-one or team drills, including 7-on-7 drills or anytime players are in a team formation. All photographers are prohibited from any use of their cameras anywhere on Saint Vincent's campus other than the designated spots on the practice fields and outside of the cafeteria.

Media are allowed to tape stand-ups during the designated periods when video cameras may shoot practice, any other exceptions must be cleared through Steelers' media relations.

Media are prohibited from interacting with players and coaches during practice.

In the event of inclement weather, the team may be forced to practice indoors. Media may be allowed to attend indoor practices (at the team's discretion), but access will be limited.

Media are asked to silence cell phones and pagers before entering the practice area.

The Steelers reserve the right to change their access policy without prior notice.

IN SEASON/OFF-SEASON

UPMC Rooney Sports Complex

All Steelers daily football operations take place at the team's headquarters at the UPMC Rooney Sports Complex and not at Heinz Field. Coaches and players are at Heinz Field only on game days.

All media visiting Steelers headquarters must sign in at the front desk upon arrival and receive a day badge. Badges must be worn at all times.

All media must remain in the team's media workroom while at the team's headquarters. The team's first and second floor lobby areas are not to be used for workspace or to conduct interviews.

Media are to access the practice fields from the first floor only.

Media setting up for sit-down interviews must be chaperoned to designated areas by Steelers' media relations.

Coaching offices and team meeting rooms are off limits to media. Interviews and any videotaping in the Steelers parking lot are prohibited. The team requires all interviews at the team's headquarters only be conducted in the team's locker room and other areas specifically designated by the team's media relations department.

While we understand the importance of breaking news, our expectation is that all media that cover the team will respect club policies that close walk-thru's and offseason workouts to the media, and that media will not resort to alternate means of recording those sessions even from a remote location. Media that continue to violate this request may have their access to the team's practice facility or on game days subject to review.

Press conferences, media availabilities, open practice sessions and other Steelers activities at the UPMC Rooney Sports Complex or Heinz Field may not be broadcast live by an individual or media outlet. This includes the use of social media applications such as Ustream, Periscope and Meerkat, among others.

UPMC Rooney Sports Complex Camera Credential Policy

The Pittsburgh Steelers require all visiting media who intend to use any type of electronic recording device to comply with the following policies when covering the team at club practices or events. The policies govern the online use of audio and video interviews and press conference content on non-game days and weekdays. These rules are designed to enable news organization websites to "illustrate" their coverage of the NFL with daily audio/video sound bites that supplement and complement the work of their reporters and columnists:

- All media members are required to wear credentials when on-site covering the Steelers at team headquarters.
- Camera operators may shoot video and still photos only in designated areas at the Steelers headquarters. These areas include and are limited to the practice field, locker room, media workroom and areas designated by the club's media relations department only. Still photographers do not have access to the locker room.
- Up to 90 seconds per day of audio and/or video of interviews or press conferences with NFL employees (including, but not limited to, players and coaches) or of team practice footage may be used on the Internet by credentialed news organizations. The content may not be used live and may be archived for no more than 24 hours. This applies to both game days and non-game days.

PITTSBURGH STEELERS Media Guidelines

Video/audio material comprised entirely of a credentialed media organization employee providing commentary or analysis, including stand-up video/audio material shot on the field or at other stadium or club facility locations (subject to generally applicable safety and venue management restrictions or shooting locations and times), may be distributed via media organizations' Internet sites.

The usage conditions are as follows:

- The page featuring the audio/video must provide links to NFL.com and the corresponding club site. For example: For more info, go to www.nfl.com and www.steelers.com.
- The content may be used only in an editorial context (such as in links that illustrate stories or in multimedia news sections) and may not be presented in stand alone multimedia entertainment sections of third party websites.
- No integrated advertising is permitted. Footage may appear on pages with banners and contextual ads, but the ads may not be specifically related to the NFL audio/video content.

Practice Field Access

Only local Pittsburgh media are allowed to watch Steelers practices. All access guidelines will be explained to media upon arrival.

› IN THE COMMUNITY

The Pittsburgh Steelers are proud to be a part of the Western Pennsylvania community.

The organization's strong commitment to this area dates back to 1933 when Arthur J. Rooney, Sr. founded the team. Steelers Chairman Dan Rooney and President Art Rooney II are known as two of the most active NFL owners and are some of Pittsburgh's most involved executives in civic affairs. Steelers players, coaches and front office staff are involved in appearances, charitable donations and outreach programs with nonprofit and community groups. It's our way of giving back to the community that has given us so much!

MIKE TOMLIN Head Coach

Mike Tomlin was named the 16th head coach in Pittsburgh Steelers history on January 22, 2007. Hired at the age of 34, Tomlin became only the third head coach hired by the Steelers since 1969.

Through nine seasons, Tomlin has accomplished many things that have never been done in the team's storied history. His 92-52 regular-season record (.639) is the best start in franchise history, and he became the youngest head coach in NFL history to both coach in and win a Super Bowl when he led the Steelers to a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII (26 years, 323 days). By winning the Super Bowl in only his second season as a head coach, he also became the fastest to win a Super Bowl title in Steelers history.

Over the past three seasons, Tomlin has led the team to an 11-2 record in the month of December/January.

In his nine years as head coach of the Steelers, Tomlin has led Pittsburgh to four AFC North titles, most recently in 2014, and has guided the Steelers to the playoffs six times, including two trips to the Super Bowl (XLIII and XLV). Tomlin has won at least five home games in each of his first nine years, including six at Heinz Field in 2015.

Tomlin has sent a total of 36 selections to the NFL's annual Pro Bowl, including three following the 2015 season. Additionally, Tomlin was appointed by Commissioner Roger Goodell to the NFL's Competition Committee in March, 2013.

Tomlin is one of only seven coaches in league history to win a Super Bowl within his first two seasons as an NFL head coach. Tomlin is the only head coach in Steelers history to lead the team to two Super Bowls in his first four seasons at the helm, including an appearance against the Green Bay Packers in Super Bowl XLV. He is one of only two Steelers head coaches to win three division titles in his first four seasons.

Tomlin is very active in the community and was recognized, along with his wife Kiya, in February, 2013, by the Chuck Cooper Foundation with the Career Achievement in Leadership Diversity and Community Service Award. He has also been a spokesman for the Steelers' and UPMC Sports Medicine's "Don't Hit the Head, Don't Use the Head" program, which is in conjunction with USA Football's Head's Up program that promotes safety in all levels of football. Tomlin also participates in the annual ManUp Pittsburgh conference which encourages local men to be better fathers and role models. In addition, he serves on the board of directors of the Extra Mile Education Foundation, which provides support for parochial elementary schools educating children of inner-city families.

This past year, despite significant injuries to multiple starters, the Steelers finished with a 10-6 record (2nd in the AFC North) and advanced to the Divisional Round of the playoffs following an 18-16 victory over the Cincinnati Bengals in the Wild Card game. The Steelers finished third in the NFL in total offense (1st in the AFC), while the defense posted 48 sacks under first-year defensive coordinator Keith Butler. The 48 sacks were the third-most in the NFL in 2015.

Wide receiver Antonio Brown finished the 2015 season tied for the NFL lead with 136 receptions and finished second with 1,834 receiving yards, both single-season records in team history, while being voted Team MVP. An Associated Press All-Pro first-team and Pro Bowl selection, Brown became the first player in NFL history with consecutive 125-catch campaigns while recording a franchise record nine 100-yard games.

Quarterback Ben Roethlisberger had another dynamic year in 2015, finishing first in the NFL in passing yards per game (328.2) and 350-yard passing games (six total). With a 40-completion game in 2015, Roethlisberger became the first quarterback in NFL history to register two games with 40 or more completions. He eclipsed 3,500 yards for the third straight season and was selected to the Pro Bowl.

In 2014, Tomlin, who has a defensive coaching background, orchestrated one of the top offensive outputs in team history. The Steelers broke numerous offensive records, including points scored (436), total yards (6,577), passing yards/game (301.6) and total first downs (379).

On an individual basis in 2014, Tomlin guided Roethlisberger, Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell – whom all made the Pro Bowl – to record-setting years. Roethlisberger had personal bests in passing yards (4,952), completions (408) and passing TDs (32, T-2007), while Brown posted 129 receptions, 1,698 receiving yards and 13 receiving TDs. Bell, in his first full year as a starter, who was also named Team MVP, broke the Steelers' records for scrimmage yards (2,215) as well as receptions (83) and receiving yards (854) by a running back.

Arguably one of his best coaching performances may possibly have come in the second half of the 2013 season. Despite an 0-4 and 2-6 start to the season, the Steelers finished the regular season surging to a 6-2 second-half record, falling just short of the playoffs. However, he rallied the team despite numerous injuries on both sides of the ball, to stick together and finished second in the AFC North.

In 2012, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 27-10 victory over the New York Jets in the home opener, becoming the first coach in team history to win his first six home openers. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked overall defense (275.8 yards/game) and finished first in passing defense (185.2 yards/game).

In 2011, Tomlin led the Steelers to a 12-4 record, marking the second straight season the team posted 12 wins, which was only the second time in team history it had been achieved. The Steelers finished the season with the top-ranked total defense (271.8 ypg) and scoring defense (14.2 ppg). Pittsburgh posted a 7-1 record at home in 2011, for the second time in Tomlin's career (2007). He also had five players (Roethlisberger, Mike Wallace, Maurkice Pouncey, Troy Polamalu and Brown) selected to the Pro Bowl following the season.

Tomlin's seven road wins during the 2010 regular season tied a Steelers record previously set in 1978 and 2004. The Steelers finished second in total defense under Tomlin's guidance in 2010, allowing only 276.8 yards per game. Pittsburgh led the NFL and set a team record in rushing defense, yielding only 62.8 yards per game (1,004 yards), the third-best total in NFL history dating back to 1970. The Steelers also established an NFL record in 2010 by not allowing an opponent to rush for more than 75 yards in any of their first eight games during the regular season.

In all, the Steelers' defense led the NFL in 2010 in rushing yards allowed (62.8 yds./game), points allowed (232), touchdowns (22), quarterback sacks (48), rushing average (3.0), yards per play (4.5) and yards allowed on first down (4.08). It finished second in the league in passing average (6.31), turnover advantage (+14) and red-zone efficiency (40.0, tied).

Under Tomlin, the Steelers broke new ground on offense in 2009. Pittsburgh's offense ranked seventh in the NFL (ninth passing, 19th rushing) but became the first unit in team history to boast a 4,000-yard passer (Roethlisberger), two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward, Santonio Holmes) and a 1,000-yard rusher (Rashard Mendenhall) in the same season. Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL (third vs. run, 16th vs. pass) while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 quarterback sacks.

The Steelers continued to be dominant at Heinz Field under Tomlin in 2009. Pittsburgh finished with a 6-2 home record after finishing 7-1 (2007) and 6-2 (2008) at home during Tomlin's first two seasons.

Tomlin finished the 2008 season with a 12-4 record and his second consecutive AFC North Division title, becoming the only Steelers head coach to win division crowns in each of his first two seasons. He also set a record with 22 regular-season wins in his first two years at the helm and is the only Steelers head coach to win at least 10 games in each of his first two seasons. Tomlin's .688 winning percentage (22-10) after two years is the best in Steelers history.

The Steelers' defense was dominant under Tomlin's guidance in 2008, leading the NFL in total defense (237.2), pass defense (156.9), points per game (13.9), total yards per play (3.9), rushing yards per attempt (3.3), passing yards per attempt (4.7) and third-down efficiency (31.4), while finishing second in rushing defense (80.3).

Tomlin led the Steelers to a 10-6 record in 2007 and became just the second coach in team history to post a winning record, win a division title and earn a playoff berth in his inaugural season. Tomlin began his head coaching career by becoming only the second Steelers head coach to win his first three games. During 2007, the Steelers became just the fifth team in NFL history to win their first four home games by at least 20 points.

Tomlin guided the Steelers to the NFL's top-ranked defense in 2007, yielding only 266.4 yards per game. The Steelers' defense ranked third in the NFL against both the run (89.9 avg.) and the pass (176.5 avg.), and also finished third in the league in total yards allowed per play (4.6). Pittsburgh's defense led the NFL in passing yards per play (5.7) and first downs allowed per game (15.6), and finished second in the league in points allowed per game (16.8).

The Steelers' offense finished third in the NFL in rushing (135.5 avg.) during Tomlin's first season, sparked by Willie Parker, who led the league in rushing before injuring his leg in Week 16. Roethlisberger enjoyed a record-setting season during Tomlin's first year, establishing new team records for touchdown passes (32) and passer rating (104.1) while earning his first career Pro Bowl appearance.

Tomlin was the NFL's second-youngest head coach in 2007, and he became only the second Steelers' coach in team history to win at least 10 games during his first year at the helm. The Steelers posted a 7-1 record at home in 2007 and were 5-1 in the AFC North (3-0 at home).

Tomlin spent the 2006 season as the Minnesota Vikings' defensive coordinator. That season, the Vikings ranked eighth in the NFL in total defense and first against the run while not allowing a 100-yard rusher the entire season.

Tomlin was the defensive backs coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2001-05. In 2002, Tomlin guided one of the most productive defensive backfields in the NFL, culminating with its performance in Super Bowl XXXVII. The secondary recorded four of the team's five interceptions, returning two for touchdowns, to help Tampa Bay capture the franchise's first Super Bowl title.

Before joining Tampa Bay's staff, Tomlin served two seasons as the defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati (1999-00). He took over a secondary that ranked 111th in the nation in pass defense in 1998 and helped them improve to 61st overall in his first season. Under Tomlin's direction in 2000, the Bearcats ranked eighth in the nation in interceptions as well as fourth nationally in total turnovers.

Prior to joining the Cincinnati staff, Tomlin had a short stint on the coaching staff at Tennessee-Martin and then spent two seasons at Arkansas State, coaching wide receivers in 1997 before switching to defensive backs in 1998. Tomlin spent the 1996 season as a graduate assistant at the University of Memphis, where he worked with the Tiger defensive backs and special teams units. He began his coaching career in 1995 as wide receivers coach at Virginia Military Institute.

Tomlin was a three-year starter at wide receiver at William & Mary (1990-94) and finished his career with 101 receptions for 2,054 yards and 20 touchdown catches. A first-team All-Yankee Conference selection in 1994, he established a school record with a 20.2 yards-per-catch average.

JOHN MITCHELL Assistant Head Coach/Defensive Line

John Mitchell is in his 23rd season as the Steelers' defensive line coach, ranking him as the longest-tenured current member of the Steelers' coaching staff. He remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007, and he was promoted to assistant head coach.

Mitchell joined the Steelers' coaching staff on January 31, 1994, and is entering his 44th season of coaching, including 15 years at the college level and two in the United States Football League. This will be his 26th season as an NFL coach.

Since Mitchell's arrival in Pittsburgh in 1994, the Steelers' defensive front has helped the team lead the NFL in rush defense five times and finish in the top-10 in the league a total of 17 times. The team only allowed one 100-yard rusher for a stretch of 50 straight regular-season games from 2007-10, and in 2010, the defense allowed only 62.8 rushing yards per game. That figure is a team record and is the third-fewest average in a single season out of any NFL team since the 1970 NFL merger.

In 2015, the Steelers finished fifth in the league in rush defense, allowing 92.1 yards per game to opponents. Pittsburgh also tied for the second-fewest rushing first downs allowed (71) in the NFL and yielded six rushing touchdowns, the second-fewest on the season.

Defensive end Cameron Heyward led the team in sacks for the second consecutive season, as he registered 7.0 sacks in 2015. It marked the first time since 2003-04 that a defensive lineman led the team or tied for the team lead in sacks two straight seasons. Second-year defensive end Stephon Tuitt finished second on the team with a career-high 6.5 sacks in 2015.

Heyward and Tuitt finishing first and second on the team in sacks marked the first time since 1990 that two Steelers' defensive linemen finished first and second on the team in sacks.

Heyward started all 16 games for the first time in his career in 2014, and he set a career-high with 7.5 sacks, tying for the team lead. He became the first defensive lineman since 2004 (Aaron Smith) to lead or tie for the team lead in sacks in a single season. He also led the team with 21 quarterback pressures.

The Steelers' defensive line guided the group to tops in the NFL in total defense and second in rush defense, giving up 90.6 rushing yards per game in 2012. Defensive end Brett Keisel led the team with a career-high 40 quarterback pressures. He also led the line with 58 tackles and had the second-most sacks (4.5) in a single season in his career.

In 2011, the Steelers defense continued to dominate opposing offenses, only giving up 4.5 yards per play, 271.8 yards per game and 14.2 points per game, ranking first in the NFL in all three categories. Pittsburgh put on a defensive showcase in 2010 by leading the NFL in at least eight categories, including total sacks (48) and fewest points allowed (232). They became the first team in NFL history to hold their opponents to 75 or fewer rushing yards in each of their first eight games.

JOHN MITCHELL

Strong play by Mitchell's line was a huge reason why the Steelers finished the 2008 regular season second overall in the NFL against the run. In 2009, Pittsburgh's defense ranked fifth in the NFL while leading the AFC and finishing one shy of the NFL lead with 47 sacks. Mitchell was instrumental in the development of five-time Pro Bowler Casey Hampton, who became the first Steelers defensive lineman to be named Steelers' MVP or Co-MVP since Hall of Famer Joe Greene in 1970.

A former All-America defensive end for Alabama, Mitchell was the first African-American to play for the University of Alabama. Mitchell's early years in coaching were spent studying under two of college football's greatest coaches, as he was the defensive line coach under Paul "Bear" Bryant at Alabama (1973-76) and the defensive line coach at Arkansas (1977-82) under Lou Holtz.

In 1983, Mitchell made his first move to the professional level. From 1983-85 he served as the defensive line coach for the USFL's Birmingham Stallions. He returned to the college ranks in 1986 as the defensive ends coach at Temple University. Mitchell was then hired by Louisiana State University in 1987. He spent four years at LSU, coaching linebackers (1987-90). In 1990, Mitchell also served as LSU's defensive coordinator, becoming the first African-American defensive coordinator in SEC history.

Mitchell joined the NFL ranks in 1991 with the Cleveland Browns, where he tutored two Pro Bowl defensive tackles, Michael Dean Perry and Rob Burnett. Mitchell accepted his current appointment following three seasons coaching the defensive line for the Browns.

A two-time All-American defensive end at Eastern Arizona Junior College from 1969-70, Mitchell then transferred to Alabama. A starter at defensive end from 1971-72, Mitchell earned All-America honors in 1972. He earned a bachelor's degree in social work in 1972, and in 2009 he was elected into the Alabama Sports Hall of Fame.

Born in Mobile, Ala., Mitchell and his wife, Joyce, live in Pittsburgh.

KEITH BUTLER Defensive Coordinator

Keith Butler is in his second season as the team's defensive coordinator, after being promoted to the position on January 13, 2015.

Butler had served as the team's linebackers coach for 12 seasons (2003-2014). He was originally hired by the Steelers on January 28, 2003, after serving the previous four seasons (1999-2002) as the linebackers' coach of the Cleveland Browns. Butler remained on the Steelers' staff following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007.

Butler and Tomlin previously worked together at Memphis in 1996, when Butler coached the linebackers, defensive ends and special teams units, and Tomlin served as the Tigers' defensive backs coach.

Since Butler arrived in Pittsburgh in 2003, he has been instrumental in the development of Steelers' linebackers. He was honored in 2008 when he was named NFL Linebacker Coach of the Year by Pro Football Weekly.

In his first season as the Steelers' defensive coordinator in 2015, Pittsburgh's defense tied for the league lead with seven red zone takeaways. The Steelers' defense also finished in the top-10 in numerous categories, including second in fewest rushing touchdowns allowed (6), third in sacks (48.0), fifth in fewest rushing yards allowed per game (91.2) and sixth in interceptions (17). Pittsburgh's 48.0 sacks and 17 interceptions were both the most the team registered in a single-season since 2010.

In Butler's final season coaching linebackers in 2014, the group was led by Lawrence Timmons, who was selected to his first Pro Bowl. Timmons led the Steelers with 132 tackles, which was good for second-most in the AFC.

Butler also was reunited with James Harrison in 2014. Harrison was signed early in the season due to a number of injuries to the linebacker group. Harrison recorded 5.5 sacks on the year, and he also tied Jason Gildon for the most-multi sack games in team history (17).

In 2013, linebackers Timmons and Jason Worilds led a unit that lost two veterans, Larry Foote and LaMarr Woodley, to season-ending injuries early in the year. Timmons led the team with a career-high 155 tackles. Worilds led the team with a career-high 8.0 sacks.

Butler's linebackers helped Pittsburgh's defense secure the NFL's number-one ranking in 2012. Five different linebackers each recorded four or more sacks in 2012 for the first time in team history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982. Timmons had a memorable 2012 campaign, as he became the first Steeler to lead the team or tie for the team high in tackles, interceptions and sacks since Joey Porter in 2002.

KEITH BUTLER

Butler's guidance helped Harrison become one of the league's most elite performers. Harrison, the 2008 NFL Defensive Player of the Year, earned two straight team MVP awards (2007-08), recorded the longest interception return in Super Bowl history (100 yards for a touchdown in Super Bowl XLIII), and he earned five straight Pro Bowl Selections (2007-11). Harrison still holds the team record for sacks in a season, a career-high 16.0 in 2008.

Butler's coaching also guided Woodley, who owns an NFL record for posting 2.0 sacks in each of his first four postseason games. Besides Harrison, Woodley is the only player in team history to record at least 10.0 sacks in three straight seasons (2008-10). The two teamed up to produce the most sacks in a single-season by a duo (27.5) in 2008.

Prior to joining the Browns' staff, Butler spent nine years coaching in the college ranks, beginning at his alma mater, Memphis, where he coached linebackers from 1990-97, and also coached defensive ends and special teams (1995-97). He then served as defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at Arkansas State in 1998.

Butler was selected by the Seattle Seahawks in the second round of the 1978 NFL Draft and played linebacker for 10 seasons (1978-87), all with Seattle. He started 132-of-146 games in his career, and still ranks second on the club's all-time tackles list with 813.

A three-year starter at inside linebacker for Memphis, Butler led the team in tackles his junior and senior seasons. He finished his collegiate career with 384 tackles and seven interceptions. He was named a 1977 Associated Press All-American and played in the 1977 Senior Bowl and Blue-Gray All-Star Game. Butler was born in Anniston, Ala. He and his wife Janet have three sons, Blake, Brandon and Brett.

TODD HALEY Offensive Coordinator

Todd Haley is in his fifth season as the Steelers' offensive coordinator, after being hired on February 7, 2012. Haley is in his 22nd season in the NFL and his 20th as a coach.

In 2015, the Steelers suffered numerous injuries on offense. Center Maurkice Pouncey and running back Le'Veon Bell each suffered season-ending injuries, and quarterback Ben Roethlisberger did not start five games due to injury. Despite not having these Pro Bowl players, Pittsburgh's offense got significant contributions from all players, as the group managed to rank in the top-five in numerous categories.

The Steelers tied for the NFL lead by averaging 6.3 yards per play. Pittsburgh's offense also ranked third in the league in net yards per game (395.4) and passing yards per game (287.7). The Steelers' offense also tied for fourth in the NFL in points per game (26.4), and the group ranked fifth in the league in plays of 20 or more yards (76) and rushing plays of 20 or more yards (15).

In 2015, Roethlisberger led the league in passing yards per game (328.2), and he set the team's single-season record by completing 68.0% of his passes. Wide receiver Antonio Brown set new single-season team records by recording 136 receptions for 1,834 yards. Running back DeAngelo Williams, in his first season as a Steeler, tied for the league lead with 11 rushing touchdowns, and he totaled 1,274 scrimmage yards.

The Steelers' offense had a record-setting season in 2014, establishing new franchise single-season records in points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6), total first downs (379) and individual 100-yard receiving games (12). Pittsburgh's offense also finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:24), yards per first-down play (6.42) and tied for first (Green Bay) in the NFL in yards per play (6.2). Pittsburgh also scored 30 points seven times on the season to tie a franchise record for most 30-point games in a single season (1975 and 1979).

In 2014, the Steelers became the first NFL team since the 1976 Baltimore Colts to have three different players finish in the top-two in passing yards, receiving yards and scrimmage yards in a single-season.

Roethlisberger threw for a team record 4,952 yards, which was also tied for the most in the NFL (Drew Brees, New Orleans). He also set the single-season team record with 408 completions. Brown set a single-season Steelers' record with 13 receiving touchdowns. Bell set the single-season team record for yards from scrimmage (2,215), receptions by a running back (83), receiving yards for a running back (854) and total first downs (114).

In 2012, his first season as offensive coordinator, the Steelers' offense finished second in the NFL in time of possession (32:07), fourth in red zone scoring (91.8%) and 10th in third-down efficiency (42%).

Prior to joining the Steelers, Haley was the head coach of the Kansas City Chiefs for the majority of three seasons (2009-11). In his second season as the Chiefs' head coach, the team completed the greatest single-season turnaround in franchise history, and the 2010 Chiefs reached the postseason for the first time since 2006.

TODD HALEY

Following the club's highest win total since 2005, Haley was named the 101 AFC Coach of the Year voted on by national media members and was also awarded NFL Alumni Coach of the Year.

Before becoming head coach of the Chiefs, he served as the Arizona Cardinals' offensive coordinator for two seasons (2007-08). During his tenure with the Cardinals, the team won the club's first division title since 1975 and played in Super Bowl XLIII. Under Haley's guidance, Arizona's offense was one of the league's most explosive units. In 2008, Arizona tied for third in the league with a franchise-record 427 points, finished fourth in total offense, averaging 365.8 yards per game and finished second in the league in passing offense. The Cardinals also became just the fifth team in NFL history to have three wide receivers eclipse 1,000 yards in the same season.

From 1999 to 2006, Haley spent time as wide receivers coach for the Dallas Cowboys, Chicago Bears and New York Jets, helping each team earn a playoff berth. Haley began his NFL career as an assistant in the Jets scouting department in 1995, where he scouted regionally and assisted in player evaluations.

Haley earned a degree in communications from the University of North Florida in 1991. In February of 2010, Haley received the Distinguished Alumni Achievement Award, the highest award given by the University of North Florida Alumni Association, recognizing those who have made a significant contribution to their profession, community and society. He was a member of the golf squads at the University of Florida and the University of Miami, and participated in the NCAA golf tournament during his time with the Gators.

Haley is the son of Dick Haley, former Director of Player Personnel for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1971-91). As a youth, Haley was a ball boy for the Steelers and attended Steelers training camps with his father. Alongside his father, Haley would watch the Steelers' game and practice film.

Haley was born in Atlanta, Ga., but attended Upper St. Clair High School in Pittsburgh, Pa. He and his wife, Chrissy, have four daughters, Taylor, Peyton, Kady and Ella, and one son, Richard Todd, Jr.

DANNY SMITH Special Teams Coordinator

Danny Smith is in his fourth season with the Steelers as the special teams coordinator. Smith was hired on January 31, 2013.

In 2015, the Steelers lost kicker Shaun Suisham for the season in the team's first preseason contest due to a knee injury. Pittsburgh then went through two other kickers (Garrett Hartley and Josh Scobee) before signing Chris Boswell prior to the team's Week 5 game.

Though Boswell had never kicked in an NFL game, he made 29 field goals and 26 PATs for a total of 113 points in just 12 games. He set rookie/first-year single-season team records in field goals made (29), points (113) and field goal percentage (90.6). Boswell's 29 made field goals tied for fifth on the team's single-season field goals made chart.

Smith also was working with a first-year punter, Jordan Berry. Berry set the Steelers' single-season record (since 1976) for the highest percentage of punts downed inside the 20-yard line (47.5). That percentage also placed him third in the NFL in 2015. In addition, Berry tied the team's single-season net punting record with a 39.1 net average.

In 2014, Smith got solid efforts from Suisham and punter Brad Wing. Suisham made 29-of-32 field goal attempts and all 45 of his PATs for a total of 132 points, good for fourth in the AFC. Wing averaged 43.7 yards per punt in his debut NFL season in 2014. His gross punting average was the fifth-highest total in team history for a rookie or first-year player in a single season.

In the Steelers' Week 17 showdown with the Cincinnati Bengals, the AFC North Championship was on the line. Smith's punt return units cleared the way for Antonio Brown to return a punt 71 yards for a touchdown. It marked the second straight season Brown returned a punt for a touchdown against Cincinnati.

In his first season as the Steelers' special teams coordinator in 2013, Suisham had a career year, connecting on 30-of-32 field goals, which are a career high and are tied for the third-most field goals made in a single season in Steelers history. His 93.8 field goal percentage (minimum 15 attempts) also set a new single-season team record.

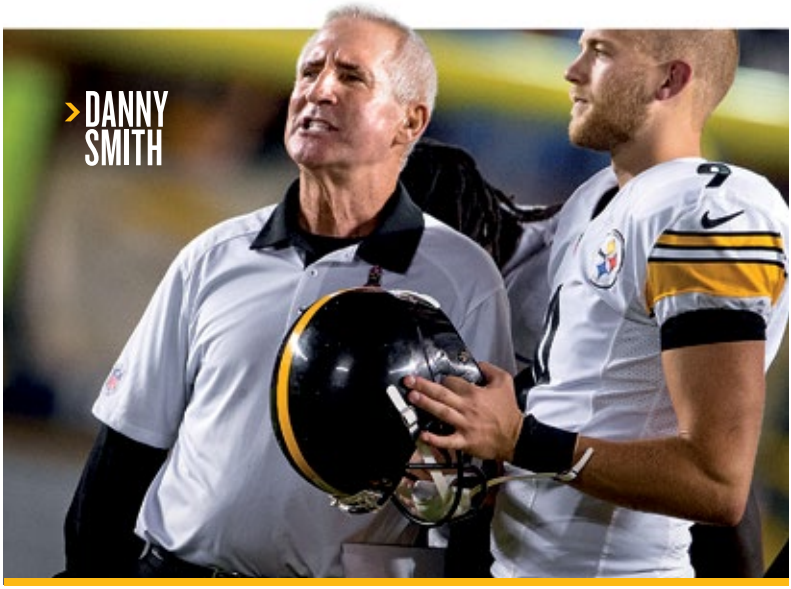

In addition to being selected to the Pro Bowl as a wide receiver in 2013, Brown was also selected as a return specialist. He recorded a 67-yard punt return for a touchdown in Week 15 versus Cincinnati, which was one of his five returns of 40 or more yards on the season.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Smith served as the Washington Redskins' special teams coordinator from 2004-2012. He helped establish Washington's special teams as one of the top coverage and return units in the NFL.

In 2011, Smith's special teams units ranked first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowed (20.8 yards) for the second consecutive season. Also in 2011, Smith guided Graham Gano to a career season. Gano finished the season with a career-high 31 field goals made. In Week 9, Gano set a team record for the longest field goal, when he connected on a 59-yarder.

DANNY SMITH

The Redskins finished first in the NFC in kickoff return average allowing 19.0 yards per return, and second in the NFC in opponent's average starting position on kickoffs (23.7-yard line) in 2010.

Smith's teams also produced two of the biggest plays of the 2009 Redskins' season. Hunter Smith had an eight-yard touchdown run on a fake field goal in Week 1, and he threw a 35-yard touchdown in Week 10. In doing so, Smith became the first specialist in NFL history to rush for a touchdown and throw a touchdown in the same season.

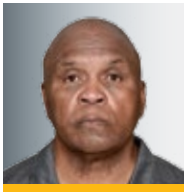

Smith's units ranked among the best in the NFL in 2006, finishing fourth in the NFL in kickoff coverage and eighth in the NFL in punt coverage. The season was filled with numerous special teams splash plays, including one kickoff return for a touchdown, one punt return for a touchdown, two blocked punts and one blocked field goal.

Prior to joining the Redskins, Smith was the special teams coordinator for the Buffalo Bills (2001-03), coached tight ends for the Detroit Lions (1999-2000), and he split duties as the defensive backs and special teams coach for the Philadelphia Eagles (1995-98).

Smith spent eight years (1987-94) as an assistant coach for Georgia Tech, where he coached running backs, wide receivers and defensive backs. He was on the staff for the Yellow Jackets' 1990 team that was named co-NCAA National Champions.

Smith played defensive back for Edinboro State College from 1971-1975, and he was elected to the Edinboro University Athletics Hall of Fame in 2007. His first collegiate coaching position came as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1976. Smith also was an assistant coach at Clemson University (1979), The College of William & Mary (1980-83) and The Citadel, the Military College of South Carolina (1984-86).

Born and raised in Pittsburgh, Pa., Smith attended Pittsburgh Central Catholic High School. He coached at Central Catholic (1977-78), helping tutor future Pro Football Hall of Fame quarterback Dan Marino. Smith is married to Elaine, of Ambridge, Pa. They have three children, Erin, Courtney and Jason.

JAMES DANIEL Tight Ends Coach

James Daniel is in his 13th season coaching tight ends for the Steelers. Daniel, who was hired on January 24, 2004, remained with the team following Mike Tomlin's hiring in January of 2007.

Under Daniel's guidance, former tight end Heath Miller became one of the top pass catchers in franchise history. Miller, who retired on February 19, 2016, left the Steelers as the team's all-time leader in receptions (592), receiving yards (6,569) and receiving touchdowns (45) by a tight end.

Overall, Miller ranks second in career receptions, fourth in receiving yards and receiving touchdowns, and sixth in scrimmage yards (6,577) in Steelers' annals. Miller is one of four players to record 500 receptions, one of five players to record 6,000 receiving yards and one of five players to record 40 receiving touchdowns in team history.

Miller is one of 12 tight ends in NFL history to reach 6,000 career receiving yards, and at the conclusion of the 2015 season, his 592 receptions are the sixth-most in NFL history by a tight end, and his 6,569 career receiving yards are the ninth-most in NFL history at the position group.

In 2015, Miller recorded 500 receiving yards for the ninth straight season to become just the second player in team history to accomplish that feat (Hines Ward). Also in 2015, he became just the second player in team history (Ward) to record at least one reception in 100 straight regular-season games played (Miller, 103).

Miller became the first tight end to ever be selected as team MVP in 2012, the same season he earned his second Pro Bowl selection. Miller earned his first Pro Bowl selection in 2009, the same season he set the team's single-season record for receptions by a tight end (76).

In 2007, Daniel groomed a young group of tight ends that finished the season with 11 receiving touchdowns, which are the most combined receiving touchdowns of any Steelers' tight end corps in team history.

During his tenure with the Atlanta Falcons (1997-2003), Daniel was instrumental in the development of Pro Bowler Alge Crumpler. Daniel began his NFL coaching career as the tight ends coach of the New York Giants from 1993-96. However, Daniel's first experience in the NFL came through the NFL's Fellowship Program in 1988 with the New Orleans Saints, and in 1992 with the Denver Broncos, who were led by Head Coach Dan Reeves. Daniel served under Reeves for his first 11 years in the NFL.

He began his coaching career in the college ranks as the offensive line coach at Auburn University (1981-92) for Head Coach Pat Dye. During Daniel's 12 years at Auburn, the Tigers appeared in nine postseason bowl games, four of his linemen earned All-America honors and several were selected All-SEC.

Prior to Auburn, Daniel coached for seven years at Enterprise High School (Enterprise, Ala.) from 1974-80. During his tenure, 11 of his offensive linemen earned college scholarships.

A native of Wetumpka, Ala., Daniel was a three-year starter (offensive guard) and four-year letter winner at Alabama State University from 1970-73. Daniel is married to Myrtis.

RANDY FICHTNER Quarterbacks Coach

Randy Fichtner is in his seventh season coaching the Steelers' quarterbacks, after spending three seasons as the team's wide receivers coach. Fichtner was hired by Head Coach Mike Tomlin on January 29, 2007.

In Fichtner's six seasons (2010-15) as the team's quarterbacks coach, Ben Roethlisberger has totaled some very impressive numbers. Over that span, he has thrown for 23,693 yards with 145 touchdowns for a passer rating of 95.7, all of which rank in the top-10 in the NFL. Roethlisberger has also been selected to three Pro Bowls in that span (2011, 2014-15).

In addition, Roethlisberger has a completion percentage of 64.7, has thrown 180 passes for at least 25 yards, and he boasts a regular season record of 53-30 during that span.

Despite missing four games due to a knee injury in 2015, Roethlisberger led the NFL in passing yards per game (328.2), and he set a single-season team record by completing 68.0% of his passes. On December 20, 2015, Roethlisberger completed 40 passes against Denver at Heinz Field to become the first quarterback in NFL history to have two 40-completion games in a career.

In Roethlisberger's absence, Fichtner had to prepare quarterbacks Mike Vick and Landry Jones, both of which never started a game for Pittsburgh. Under Fichtner's guidance, Vick and Jones helped lead the team to a 3-2 record in the five games Roethlisberger did not start.

Roethlisberger had a season for the ages in 2014, as he set numerous single-season team records, including attempts (608), completions (408), passing yards (4,952) and 300-yard games (9). Roethlisberger also tied his single-season record with 32 touchdown passes (2007) and finished tied for the NFL lead (Drew Brees, New Orleans) in passing yards.

In a Week 8 game vs. Indianapolis in 2014, Roethlisberger set the single-game team record in completions (40), passing yards (522) and passing touchdowns (6). With his 522-yard performance, he became the first quarterback in NFL history to throw for at least 500 yards in multiple games in a career. The following week, Roethlisberger threw six more touchdowns vs. the Baltimore Ravens to give him an NFL record 12 touchdown passes in a two-game span.

In Fichtner's final year as wide receivers coach in 2009, the Steelers had two 1,000-yard receivers (Hines Ward and Santonio Holmes). In 2008, Ward topped 1,000 yards (1,043) for the fifth time in his career, and Holmes was named MVP of Super Bowl XLIII after he caught nine passes for 131 yards, including the game-winning touchdown reception with 35 seconds remaining in the fourth quarter.

Fichtner, who instituted the spread offense at Memphis, was an integral part of the Tiger football team for six years. He was hired in 2001 to serve as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, and his offense re-wrote the Memphis record book for six seasons.

RANDY FICHTNER

Fichtner spent four years (1997-2000) at Arkansas State University. He arrived in Jonesboro as the quarterbacks coach in the spring of 1997 and was promoted to offensive coordinator in August of 1997. During his tenure with the Indians, Fichtner worked with Cleo Lemon, who set virtually every Arkansas State passing and total offense record.

Prior to joining the staff at Arkansas State, Fichtner spent three years at his alma mater, Purdue University, serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator from 1994-96. His original stint with Memphis came from 1990-94, when he coached wide receivers and quarterbacks. During his tenure, Fichtner worked with future NFL All-Pro Isaac Bruce.

Fichtner worked as a student assistant and graduate assistant at Purdue (1985-86) and at the University of Michigan (1986-87), before serving as a volunteer coach at the University of Southern California in 1988. He landed his first full-time position in 1989 as the tight ends coach at UNLV, and worked for the Rebels for one season before going to Memphis.

A native of Cleveland, Ohio, Fichtner was a standout football player at Meadville Area Senior High School in Meadville, Pa. He played defensive back at Purdue and graduated in 1985 with a bachelor's degree in health promotion.

His father, Ross, played safety for the Cleveland Browns (1960-67) and the New Orleans Saints (1968). Ross saw action in 106 career games, and he recorded 27 interceptions for 581 yards, three of which were returned for touchdowns. Ross was named second-team All-NFL in 1966 and was a member of the 1964 Browns NFL Championship team.

Fichtner is married to the former Jennifer Parker of Covington, Tenn., and the couple has three children, a son, Nathaniel Ross, and two daughters, Shelby Brooke and Kirby Lynn.

CARNELL LAKE Defensive Backs Coach

Carnell Lake is in his sixth season with the Steelers as the team's defensive backs coach. He was hired by the Steelers on March 7, 2011.

In 2015, the Steelers' secondary totaled 12 interceptions, two of which were returned for touchdowns. The 12 interceptions by the defensive backs were the most in a single-season by Pittsburgh since 2010. Four defensive backs recorded at least two interceptions, with safety Mike Mitchell leading the group with three.

Cornerback William Gay recorded his fifth career pick-six in 2015, which is tied for the most interceptions returned for touchdowns in Steelers' history. Gay returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown at Cincinnati on December 13, 2015, which marked his fifth consecutive interception returned for a score, establishing an NFL record.

Lake's coaching throughout the 2014 season guided many young players in the secondary. Cornerbacks Brice McCain and Antwon Blake, who played primarily on special teams throughout their careers, saw significant playing time due to injuries to various players. McCain recorded three interceptions, one of which was returned for a touchdown to seal a Week 5 victory at Jacksonville. Blake saw action in all 16 games, where he recorded one interception, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery.

The secondary also got a boost from veteran cornerback Gay. He set a single-season career-high with three interceptions, all three of which were returned for touchdowns. Gay's three pick-sixes on the season set a franchise record for a single season, and was tops in the NFL for 2014.

In each of Lake's first three seasons as defensive backs coach, the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense, marking the first time since 1999-2001 that the Steelers finished in the top-10 in pass defense three straight years.

The Steelers' secondary finished top-10 in the league in 2013 in numerous categories, including completion percentage allowed (fifth, 57.8), fewest passing first downs allowed (fifth, 174) and fewest pass plays of 25+ yards allowed (tied-eighth, 25).

Safety Troy Polamalu guided the veteran group in 2013, and earned his eighth Pro Bowl selection for his efforts. Polamalu set a single-season career-high with five forced fumbles. He returned one interception for a touchdown to become just the fifth player in team history to record five career defensive touchdowns. He was named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for his Week 12 performance at Cleveland.

In 2012, the Steelers' secondary led a defense that finished first in the NFL in pass defense for the second straight season, allowing 185.2 passing yards per game. The Steelers' secondary was part of a defense that also allowed the fewest yards per pass attempt (6.04), the fewest pass plays of 25+ yards (19) and the second-fewest yards allowed after the catch (1,376).

In Lake's first season in 2011, he coached the Steelers' secondary that held 10 teams to 170 net passing yards or less during the regular season. Pittsburgh only gave up 21 pass plays of 25+ yards in 2011, which tied for the fewest allowed in the NFL.

Lake played safety and cornerback for the Steelers (1989-98), the Jacksonville Jaguars (1999-00) and the Baltimore Ravens (2001). Following his retirement from football after the 2001 season, Lake worked in a private business before starting his career in coaching with the Philadelphia Eagles during their 2009 training camp and as an intern with the Green Bay Packers in 2010.

Lake was selected by the Steelers in the second round (34th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft and won the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the Steelers' top rookie. Lake went on to earn five Pro Bowl trips (four with the Steelers and one with the Jacksonville Jaguars). He finished his Steelers' career with 15 fumble recoveries and 16 interceptions. In 1997 Lake was named AFC Defensive Player of the Year, and was later named to the NFL 1990s All-Decade Team.

A three-year starter for the Bruins at outside linebacker, Lake was a first-team All-America selection as a senior (1988) as well as earning the National Football Foundation Hall of Fame Scholar Athlete Award. He was inducted into the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame in 2000. Lake finished his college career with 45.5 tackles for loss and 25.5 sacks.

Born in Salt Lake City, Utah, Lake moved to California and attended Culver City High School (Culver City, Calif.). He and his wife, Monica, have three children, Siena, Quentin and Austin.

RICHARD MANN — Wide Receivers Coach

Richard Mann is in his fourth season as the Steelers' wide receivers coach, after being hired on February 13, 2013. Mann is entering his 32nd season as an assistant coach in the NFL.

In 2015, wide receiver Antonio Brown broke his own franchise single-season records by recording 136 receptions for 1,834 yards. His 136 receptions tied for the NFL lead, and his 1,834 receiving yards were the second-most in the NFL. Brown also set a single-season franchise record by recording nine 100-yard games. On November 8, 2015, against the Oakland Raiders, he set single-game team records in receptions (17), receiving yards (284) and scrimmage yards (306). Brown was named first-team All-Pro by the Associated Press and The Sporting News, and he earned his fourth Pro Bowl selection in 2015.

Wide receiver Markus Wheaton finished seventh in the NFL by averaging 17.0 yards per reception in 2015. Second-year wide receiver Martavis Bryant recorded six receiving touchdowns in 2015 to give him a total of 14 receiving touchdowns in his career, which are the fourth-most in Steelers' history by a player in their first two seasons with the team.

In 2014, Mann's receiving corps totaled 12 individual 100-yard games, setting a new single-season team record. Brown set the single-season team record with 13 receiving touchdowns, and he averaged 106.1 receiving yards per game to become the first receiver in team history to average more than 100.0 yards per game throughout a single season in 2014.

As a rookie, Bryant recorded eight receiving touchdowns in 2014. He became one of four players in NFL history to record seven or more touchdowns in their first seven games. Bryant also recorded a 94-yard touchdown reception, the second-longest pass play in team history. He was honored with the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annually to the team's top rookie.

In Mann's first season as wide receivers coach in 2013, Brown was named Steelers' MVP, and veteran wide receiver Jerricho Cotchery led the team with 10 receiving touchdowns.

Prior to joining Pittsburgh, Mann had been assisting and consulting players as they prepare for the NFL Draft as well as coaching in All-Star games. He coached wide receivers for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 2002-09, and also served as assistant head coach in his final year in 2009. From 2002-08, the Buccaneers had at least one 1,000-yard receiver in each season, which is the longest streak in franchise history.

One of those receivers was Antonio Bryant. In 2008, Bryant led the team in receptions, receiving yards and receiving touchdowns. For his efforts, he was named Comeback Player of the Year by The Sporting News.

From 2005-07, Joey Galloway had three consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, to become the first player in Buccaneers' history to accomplish the feat. Galloway recorded a career-high 1,287 receiving yards in 2005. During that year, he surpassed the 1,000-yard mark in 11 games, which is the fastest in franchise history.

In 2003, Mann's receiving corps guided the Buccaneers' offense to finish top-10 in the NFL for only the second time in team history, and Keenan McCardell earned a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2002, Buccaneers' wide receivers totaled 184 receptions for 2,281 yards with 16 receiving touchdowns, as the group helped guide the team to its first and only Super Bowl (XXXVII) victory over the Oakland Raiders.

Prior to joining the Buccaneers, Mann served as the wide receivers coach for the Washington Redskins (2001), the Kansas City Chiefs (1999-2000) and the Baltimore Ravens (1997-98). He also was an assistant with the New York Jets (1994-96) where he coached the wide receivers (1994, 1996) and both the tight ends and wide receivers (1995). While with the Jets, Mann coached Rob Moore, who earned a trip to the Pro Bowl in 1994. Moore is currently the wide receivers coach for the Oakland Raiders.

From 1985-93, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cleveland Browns. In his first season with the Browns, he coached both the tight ends and wide receivers, and then coached the wide receivers the remainder of his time with Cleveland. During his tenure, Mann coached Hall of Famer Ozzie Newsome and Pro Bowler Webster Slaughter. He got his first NFL coaching job with the Baltimore/Indianapolis Colts (1982-84), coaching wide receivers.

Prior to joining the NFL ranks, Mann served as an assistant at the University of Louisville (1980-81) and at his alma mater, Arizona State University (1974-79). He was a three-year starter for the Sun Devils from 1966-68.

Mann is a native of Aliquippa, Pa. He attended Aliquippa High School and was part of the team's 1964 WPIAL Championship team. Mann coached at Aliquippa from 1970-1973, starting out at the junior high level and then working his way to the high school level, where he coached wide receivers. Mann is a member of the Aliquippa and the Beaver County (Pa.) Halls of Fame. He and his wife, Karen, have four children, daughters Deven and Brittany, and sons Richard II and Mario. Richard II is currently a pro scout for the Washington Redskins.

MIKE MUNCHAK Offensive Line Coach

Mike Munchak is in his third season as the offensive line coach for the Steelers, after being hired on January 23, 2014.

Munchak is entering his 35th season in the NFL, having spent 32 of those years as a player, and later as a coach, with the Tennessee Titans/Houston Oilers organization. Munchak served as the head coach of the Tennessee Titans from 2011-2013.

On August 4, 2001, Munchak was recognized for his outstanding playing career when he was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

Munchak's group stared in the face of adversity in 2015, as the unit lost Pro Bowl center Maurkice Pouncey to a season-ending leg injury during the preseason, and the group lost tackle/guard Kelvin Beachum to a season-ending knee injury in Week 6. With the "Next man up" approach, center Cody Wallace and offensive tackle Alejandro Villanueva each stepped into the starting lineup and remained there for the entire regular season and postseason.

In 2015, the offensive line helped block for an offense that finished tied for first in the NFL in yards per play (6.3), third in the league in net yards per game (395.4) and net passing yards per game (287.7), tied for fourth in the NFL in points per game (26.4) and fifth in the league in plays of at least 20 yards (76).

In Munchak's first season as the Steelers' offensive line coach in 2014, the line helped block for an offense that set numerous single-season team records and led the NFL in multiple categories.

The team set single-season records in points (436), total net yards (6,577), passing yards per game (301.6) and total first downs (379). Pittsburgh's offense also finished first in the NFL in time of possession (32:24), yards per first-down play (6.42) and tied for first (Green Bay) in the NFL in yards per play (6.2). The Steelers also scored 30 points seven times on the season to tie a franchise record for most 30-point games in a single season (1975 and 1979).

The line helped pave the way for quarterback Ben Roethlisberger, wide receiver Antonio Brown and running back Le'Veon Bell to have record-breaking seasons and all earn Pro Bowl honors. Center Maurkice Pouncey also earned a trip to the Pro Bowl, his fourth honor in five career seasons.

In his three seasons as the head coach of the Titans, Munchak compiled a 22-26 record (.458). He posted 15 wins in his first two seasons as the Titans' head coach, which were the third-most wins by a coach in his first two full seasons with the team. Munchak's first season as head coach in 2011 saw the Titans finish with a 9-7 record, which was the team's first winning season since 2008 and made him one of only two rookie head coaches (Jim Harbaugh, San Francisco 49ers) to post a winning record in 2011.

Prior to taking over as head coach, Munchak spent 14 years (1997-2010) as Tennessee's offensive line coach. During his tenure, four of his offensive linemen totaled 10 Pro Bowl invitations and led the way for five different running backs to total an NFL-high 12 1,000-yard rushing seasons. The Titans ranked seventh in the league in rushing yards (124.5 yards per game) and finished in the top 10 in rushing seven times from 1997-2010. From 1997-2013, the Titans are the only team to produce 16 1,000-yard rushers.

In 2009, Munchak's offensive line group helped pave the way for a 2,000-yard rushing season by Chris Johnson. Johnson became only the sixth player in NFL history to reach that mark and was named the Offensive Player of the Year.

In Munchak's 14 seasons as offensive line coach, only twice did the team start the same five linemen from one season to the next. However, the Titans allowed the second-fewest sacks (28.3 per season) in the NFL from 1997-2010. In 2003, the offensive line provided protection for QB Steve McNair to garner NFL co-MVP honors.

Munchak began his coaching career with the Oilers as an offensive assistant in 1994, before officially becoming an offensive quality control coach for the 1995-96 seasons. Then Titans head coach Jeff Fisher promoted Munchak to offensive line coach prior to the start of the 1997 season, where he remained until he took over as the Titans' head coach in 2011.

The Oilers selected Munchak with the eighth pick in the 1982 NFL Draft, making him the first offensive lineman chosen that year. Munchak played guard for Houston for 12 seasons from 1982-93 and started 156 regular season games (seventh-most in franchise history) and 10 postseason contests. Munchak was selected to nine Pro Bowls (1984-85, '87-'93) during his career and was named to the NFL's 1980s "All-Decade" team. The team retired Munchak's number 63 jersey in 1996 and he was inducted into the Titans/Oilers Hall of Fame in 1999.

Munchak played his collegiate football at Penn State from 1979-81 and earned a business degree. Among his many honors, he is also a member of the Pennsylvania, Texas and Polish-American Sports Halls of Fame.

Munchak is a native of Scranton, Pa., and is married to Marci. They have two grown daughters, Alexandria and Julie.

Jerry Olsavsky is in his second season as the team's inside linebackers coach. Olsavsky was promoted to his current position on February 6, 2015.

In Olsavsky's first season coaching the inside linebackers, the unit was once again led by Lawrence Timmons. Timmons finished the season with 119 tackles, 5.0 sacks, one interception and one forced fumble. It marked the fourth straight season Timmons recorded at least 100 tackles and the third straight season he led the team in tackles.

Second-year player Ryan Shazier finished second on the team in tackles, while adding 3.5 sacks and two forced fumbles, despite missing four games due to various injuries. In Week 2 vs. San Francisco, Shazier had a breakout game, recording 15 tackles, one sack, one forced fumble and one fumble recovery. Shazier also led the team in tackles (20) and forced fumbles (2) during the postseason.

Another member of Olsavsky's group, Vince Williams, led the team with 11 special teams tackles.

Prior to his promotion, Olsavsky was a defensive assistant for five seasons. He assisted all areas of the defensive staff in their daily operations.

In Olsavsky's five years as a defensive assistant, the Steelers' defense ranked top-two in the league in total defense three times, including back-to-back years (2011-12) as the number-one ranked defense.

A 10-year NFL veteran, Olsavsky spent seven seasons coaching linebackers for Youngstown State University. Prior to coaching at Youngstown State, Olsavsky spent one year as an assistant strength coach at the University of North Carolina. He also coached at his alma mater, Chaney High School in Youngstown and at Duquesne University.

Olsavsky, was selected by the Steelers in the 10th round (258th overall) of the 1989 NFL Draft, and played linebacker from 1989-97. He saw action in 108 games for the Steelers, making 227 tackles, while also excelling on special teams. Olsavsky battled back from a career threatening knee injury in 1993 and helped lead the Steelers to a berth in Super Bowl XXX. In 1995, he was the recipient of the Steelers' Ed Block Courage Award, given annually to the Steeler that overcomes many obstacles only to achieve great success on the field. Olsavsky finished his playing career in 1998 with the Baltimore Ravens.

Playing collegiately at the University of Pittsburgh, Olsavsky was a first-team Kodak All-American as a senior in 1988, when he made 129 tackles. He became the Panthers' first defensive player since 1976 to record more than 100 tackles in three consecutive seasons. He earned his degree in information science in 1990.

Olsavsky was born in Youngstown, Ohio, and he resides in Pittsburgh with his three children, Joseph, Emma and Dominic.

JOEY PORTER Outside Linebackers

Joey Porter is in his second season as the team's outside linebackers coach. Porter was promoted on February 6, 2015, after serving as a defensive assistant for the team for the 2014 season.

Porter is entering his 16th NFL season and third as a coach. He spent 13 seasons (1999-2011) as a linebacker, playing with Pittsburgh, Miami and Arizona. He spent the 2013 season as an undergraduate student assistant coach at his alma mater, Colorado State University.

In his first season coaching the outside linebackers in 2015, his group totaled 15.0 of the team's 48.0 sacks. The group was led by James Harrison, who totaled 5.0 sacks for the eighth time in a single season in his career. Harrison also added one interception and two forced fumbles.

Rookie linebacker Bud Dupree totaled 4.0 sacks on the season, which was tied for the fifth-most sacks in the NFL by a rookie. His 4.0 sacks also tied for third on the Steelers' all-time sacks list by a rookie. For his efforts, Dupree was honored with the Joe Greene Great Performance Award, given annual to the Steelers' top rookie.

Porter was originally drafted by the Steelers in the third round (73rd overall) of the 1999 NFL Draft, and played for Pittsburgh from 1999-2006. He spent the 2007-09 seasons with the Miami Dolphins before playing his final two years (2010-11) with the Arizona Cardinals. Porter started 171-of-188 career games, as he registered 98.0 sacks, 25 forced fumbles, 12 interceptions, nine fumble recoveries, three defensive touchdowns and one safety. His 60.0 sacks as a member of the Steelers rank third in franchise history, since sacks became an official statistic in 1982.

Porter also started 11 postseason games in which he played (10 with Pittsburgh), and he was a key member of Pittsburgh's Super Bowl XL team. He registered 6.0 sacks and one forced fumble in his postseason career.

A four-time Pro Bowler and a four-time All-Pro, Porter was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team for the 2000's. During the 2008 season, Porter registered his 70th career sack, which made him the first player in NFL history with 10 career interceptions and 70.0 career sacks. Porter was also the only NFL player to register at least 5.0 sacks in each season from 2000-10, recording at least 9.0 sacks six times in that span.

Porter played at Colorado State from 1995-98, registering 20.0 career sacks in two seasons on defense after spending his first two collegiate seasons on offense. His 14.0 sacks as a senior earned him all-WAC honors and invites to both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. Porter still ranks fifth on the school's all-time sacks list and his 14.0 sacks in 1998 are the second-most in a single season in school history. In November of 2013, Porter was inducted into the Colorado State Athletics Hall of Fame. He graduated from Colorado State with a degree in liberal arts in May, 2014.

JAMES SAXON Running Backs Coach

James Saxon is in his third season as the running backs coach for the Steelers, after being hired on January 28, 2014. Saxon is entering his 25th season in the NFL as either a player or coach.

In his 16 years as an NFL running backs coach, Saxon has helped his backs reach the Pro Bowl 12 times, and he has had a running back surpass the 1,000-yard rushing mark in a single season nine times.

In 2015, running back Le'Veon Bell was lost for the season due to a knee injury he sustained in Week 8. Veteran running back DeAngelo Williams contributed in a big way, as he totaled 1,274 scrimmage yards and tied for the league lead with 11 rushing touchdowns. He was the only AFC player to register at least 1,000 scrimmage yards and at least 10 rushing touchdowns. Williams tied the single-game franchise record by rushing for three touchdowns Week 2 vs. San Francisco.

After Williams suffered a foot injury that kept him out of the postseason, backup running backs Jordan Todman and Fitzgerald Toussaint contributed in the postseason, combining for 230 scrimmage yards in two games.

Saxon coached Bell to a breakout season in just his second year in the league in 2014. Bell was named Steelers' MVP, and he set numerous single-season records, including yards from scrimmage (2,215), first downs (114), receptions by a running back (83) and receiving yards by a running back (854). He became the first player since Walter Payton (1976) to total at least 200 yards from scrimmage in three straight games.

Bell rushed for an AFC-best 1,361 yards in 2014, the fifth-highest total in a single season in team history. He also became just the second player in NFL history to record at least 1,350 rushing yards and 850 receiving yards in a single season (Marshall Faulk, 1999). In games 11-14, Bell totaled 830 yards from scrimmage, which tied him for the fourth-most in a four-game span in NFL history.

In 2012, Saxon helped guide Minnesota Vikings running back Adrian Peterson to the second-best single-season rushing performance in NFL history with 2,097 yards and a first-team All-Pro selection. That year, Peterson became only the third player in Minnesota history to be named NFL MVP and was also named the NFL Offensive Player of the Year. Peterson set or tied numerous team and league records in 2012, including the most rushing yards in the month of December (861) in NFL history and his 10 games of more than 100 rushing yards tied his own team record (2008). In addition to Peterson's accolades, FB Jerome Felton was a second-team All-Pro selection and earned a Pro Bowl spot for the first time in his career.

Prior to Minnesota, Saxon spent three seasons (2008-10) coaching running backs for the Miami Dolphins, including Ricky Williams and Ronnie Brown, who he helped reach the Pro Bowl following the 2008 season. In 2009, the Dolphins finished with the NFL's fourth-best rushing attack (139.4 yards per game) and Williams led the team with 1,121 rushing yards. The Dolphins also used Brown and Williams in the Wildcat package as a wrinkle in their offense.

JAMES SAXON

Saxon spent seven seasons (2001-07) with the Kansas City Chiefs, helping a trio of the top backs in franchise history (Priest Holmes, Larry Johnson and Tony Richardson) earn seven Pro Bowl selections. Holmes and Johnson totaled five 1,000-yard rushing seasons between them in Saxon's tenure. Holmes and Johnson also rank first and second, respectively, in team history in career yardage and own four of the top single-season rushing totals in team history, including Johnson's team-record 1,789 yards in 2006.

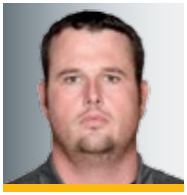

The 2003 season saw Holmes set the Kansas City single-season record with 27 rushing touchdowns, which at the time was also an NFL record. Holmes played his entire career under Saxon, finishing with 24 100-yard rushing games, which was later topped by Johnson's 30 such performances.

Saxon broke into the NFL as a running backs coach with the Buffalo Bills in 2000, after spending three seasons in the collegiate ranks. Saxon spent one season as a volunteer assistant coach at Menlo College in 1999 and spent two seasons coaching running backs at Rutgers University (1997-98).

Saxon was a sixth round draft choice (139th overall) by the Kansas City Chiefs in 1988. He spent eight seasons as an NFL running back, playing for the Chiefs (1988-91), Dolphins (1992-94) and Philadelphia Eagles (1995). In his career, Saxon played in 111 games during the regular season and in eight postseason contests. During the regular season, Saxon totaled 214 touches for 1,048 scrimmage yards.

Saxon began his collegiate career at American River Junior College (1984-85). He then transferred to San Jose State University (1986-87), where he totaled 609 rushing yards and nine touchdowns on 118 carries in two seasons. He recorded 78 receptions for 732 yards and four touchdowns, while also throwing four touchdown passes.

A native of Beaufort, S.C., Saxon attended Battery Creek High School in Burton, S.C. He is married to Shannon and their son, Devin, played football at Harvard.

SHAUN SARRETT Offensive Assistant

Shaun Sarrett is in his fifth season with the Steelers as the team's offensive assistant. Sarrett helps coach the offensive line and assists the offensive coaching staff with game preparation, video analysis and the scouting of opponents.

The offensive line lost Pro Bowl center Maurkice Pouncey to a season-ending leg injury during the preseason, and the group lost tackle/guard Kelvin Beachum to a season-ending knee injury in Week 6 of the 2015 season. But with the "Next man up" approach, the group rallied.

In 2015, the offensive line helped block for an offense that finished tied for first in the NFL in yards per play (6.3), third in the league in net yards per game (395.4) and net passing yards per game (287.7), tied for fourth in the NFL in points per game (26.4) and fifth in the league in plays of at least 20 yards (76).

In 2014, Sarrett helped coach the offensive line to one of its finest seasons in team history. HISTORY

STEELERS History

The fifth-oldest franchise in the NFL, the Steelers were founded on July 8, 1933, by Arthur Joseph Rooney. Originally named the Pittsburgh Pirates, they were a member of the Eastern Division of the 10-team NFL. The other four current NFL teams in existence at that time were the Chicago (Arizona) Cardinals, Green Bay Packers, Chicago Bears and New York Giants.

One of the great pioneers of the sports world, Art Rooney passed away on August 25, 1988, following a stroke at the age of 87. "The Chief", as he was affectionately known, is enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame and is remembered as one of Pittsburgh's great people.

Born on January 27, 1901, in Coultersville, Pa., Art Rooney was the oldest of Daniel and Margaret Rooney's nine children. He grew up in Old Allegheny, now known as Pittsburgh's North Side, and until his death he lived on the North Side, just a short distance from where Three Rivers Stadium stood.

Rooney attended St. Peter's Parochial School and Duquesne University Prep School. He studied collegiately at Indiana (Pa.) Normal, which is now Indiana University of Pennsylvania, as well as at Georgetown and Duquesne.

An exceptional all-around athlete, Rooney held middleweight and welterweight titles from the AAU Boxing Championships and was named to the U.S. Olympic Boxing Team in 1920, although he did not participate in the Olympic Games. He played minor league baseball from 1920-25 before a promising career was cut short by an arm injury. Rooney continued playing football for several semi-pro teams in the Pittsburgh area. He was married on June 11, 1931, to Kathleen McNulty, and the couple had five sons — Daniel, Art Jr., Tim, John and Pat. In 1964, Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame for his contributions to the growth of the NFL and the Pittsburgh Steelers.

By the mid-1960s, Rooney had begun to turn over much of the operation of the Steelers to his oldest son, Dan. After having worked in every area of the organization since 1955, Daniel M. Rooney was named president of the Steelers in 1975. In 2000, Dan Rooney was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He joined his his father Art to form only the second father-son tandem to be inducted into the Hall of Fame. The late New York Giants owners Wellington Mara and his father Tim were the first.

Dan Rooney spent 54 consecutive years with the organization before being named U.S. Ambassador to Ireland in 2009 by President Barack Obama. Rooney was required to move to Ireland in 2009 to fulfill his duties as ambassador.

As an NFL owner, Dan Rooney is widely recognized as one of the league's most influential executives and one of Pittsburgh's leading contributors to civic affairs. Among his community activities, Dan Rooney is a board member for The American Ireland Fund, The Pittsburgh History and Landmarks Foundation and The Heinz History Center.

Dan Rooney has been a member of several NFL committees over the past 30-plus years. He has served on the board of directors for the NFL Trust Fund, NFL Films and the Scheduling Committee. He was appointed chairman of the Expansion Committee in 1973, which considered new franchise locations and directed the addition of Seattle and Tampa Bay as expansion teams in 1976.

In 1976, Rooney was also named chairman of the Negotiating Committee, and in 1982 he contributed to the negotiations for the Collective Bargaining Agreement for the NFL and the Players' Association. He again played a key role in the labor agreement reached between NFL owners and players in 1993. Rooney was also largely responsible for developing the realignment plan and scheduling format that the NFL adopted prior to the 2002 season. In October 2002, he was named chairman of the NFL's Diversity in the Workplace Committee. Rooney is also Chairman of the Hall of Fame Committee. In February 1999, he was named the recipient of the Philadelphia Maxwell Football Club's Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award for outstanding contributions to the game of football.

Daniel M. Rooney was born on Pittsburgh's North Side on July 20, 1932. He is a 1950 graduate of North Catholic High School, where he played quarterback on the varsity football team. He went on to graduate from Duquesne University in 1955 with a bachelor of arts degree in accounting. Rooney and his wife Patricia live on the North Side. The Rooneys have nine children and 17 grandchildren.

Dan Rooney was named Steelers' Chairman Emeritus in July 2009 after he was named United States Ambassador to Ireland. Rooney served as United States Ambassador until late 2012. He returned to the Steelers and currently serves as chairman.

In 2003, Dan Rooney officially turned over the title of Steelers' team president to his oldest son, Arthur J. Rooney II, who had previously served as the team's vice presdent and general counsel. Art II also previously served as Chairman of the Board of Klett Rooney Lieber & Schorling (now Buchanon Ingersoll & Rooney), Attorneys at Law. A 1978 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh where he majored in political science, Art II received his law degree from Duquesne University School of Law in 1982. He currently serves as Chairman of the NFL's Stadium Committee, and serves on numerous NFL boards, including the Legislative Committee, the Management Council Executive Committee, the International Committee and the Digital Media Committee.

Mr. Rooney is also very active in the Pittsburgh community, devoting a substantial amount of his time to various organizations. He currently serves on the boards of the Pittsburgh Public Theater, St. Vincent College, Senator John Heinz Western PA History Center, the United Way of Allegheny County.

> ART ROONEY

1930s After founding the Pirates in 1933, Art Rooney watched his club struggle through its first seven seasons with just 22 wins and five different head coaches. While home games were played at Forbes Field, Rooney often took his team to such cities as Johnstown, Latrobe, Youngstown, New Orleans and Louisville in the 1930s due to competition with baseball and college football.

In 1938, Rooney signed Colorado All-America Byron "Whizzer" White to a $15,800 contract, making White the first "big money" player in the NFL. White led the league in rushing that year and became one of the NFL's most illustrious alumni. He served 31 years as a Justice of the United States Supreme Court before retiring in 1993.

1940s In 1940, Rooney changed the team name to the Pittsburgh Steelers, representing the heritage of Pittsburgh. The first winning record in the organization's history came in 1942 when head coach Walt Kiesling led the Steelers to a 7-4 finish with the league-leading rushing of rookie Bill Dudley. But the next year, Dudley joined the Armed Forces along with many other NFL players as the nation went to war. With rosters depleted, Rooney merged the Steelers with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1943 (Phil-Pitt "Steagles") and with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) in 1944.

Rooney hired legendary Pitt coach Jock Sutherland in 1946, and Dudley returned from the war to earn NFL MVP honors, leading the league in rushing, interceptions and punt returns. Today, Dudley is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

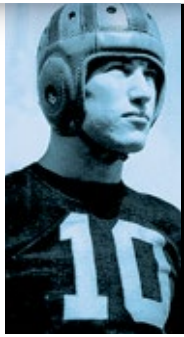

Sutherland led the 1947 Steelers to an 8-4 record and a share of the Eastern division title, but they lost their first-ever postseason game 21-0 to Philadelphia. Sutherland died suddenly the following spring while on a scouting trip.

1950s Succeeding Sutherland, John Michelosen was head coach for the 1948-51 seasons, compiling a 20-26-2 record. In 1952, Joe Bach returned for his second stint with the Steelers, having coached the team previously in 1935-36. The Steelers became the last team to abandon the single wing for the T-formation in 1952.

Bach resigned for health reasons following the 1954 season and was replaced by assistant coach Walt Kiesling, who had been the Steelers' head coach twice previously. Kiesling's three stints covered the 1939-40, 1941-44 and the 1954-56 campaigns.

Lowell Perry becomes the NFL's first African-American assistant coach.

1938
Byron "Whizzer" White was paid an unheard-of $15,800 to play one season for the Steelers.

1940

1943
The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Philadelphia Eagles to form the "Steagles" as many rosters were depleted due to World War II.

December 21 – The Steelers played their first postseason game, a 21-0 setback to the Philadelphia Eagles in the Eastern Division Playoffs.

1942
November 22 – The Steelers defeat the Chicago Cards 19-3 to clinch their first winning season in team history.

1944
The Pittsburgh Steelers merge with the Chicago Cardinals (Card-Pitt) as many rosters were still depleted due to World War II.

STEELERS History

1960s Buddy Parker was named head coach in 1957 and over the next eight years he led the Steelers to five non-losing seasons. Hall of Fame quarterback Bobby Layne led the team through three of those campaigns, leading the Steelers to a 9-5 mark and a playoff game versus Detroit in 1962, which the Steelers lost 17-10. Parker completed his tenure with a 51-48-6 record and ranks fourth among all-time Steelers coaches for career wins.

On October 25, 1964, the Steelers made team history when they retired jersey No. 70 in honor of former defensive tackle Ernie Stautner. Stautner, who was inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1969, became the first Steelers player to have his jersey retired.

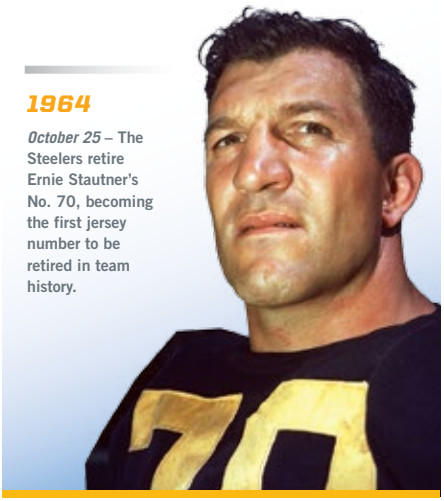

Brief head coaching stints by Mike Nixon in 1965 and Bill Austin from 1966-68 preceded the hiring of 37-year-old Chuck Noll on January 27, 1969. Noll began to rebuild the Steelers through the draft, starting with the defense when he selected defensive tackle Joe Greene with his first choice in 1969. Today, Greene is a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, and joined Stautner as the only two players to have their jerseys retired by the team. Greene's No. 75 was officially retired on November 2, 2014.

1970s A 1-13 record in 1969 gave the Steelers the first overall choice in the 1970 draft, with which Noll addressed the offense by selecting quarterback Terry Bradshaw, another Hall of Famer, after the Steelers won the first selection by winning a coin toss with the Chicago Bears. Cornerback Mel Blount was added in the third round that year, followed by linebacker Jack Ham in 1971 and running back Franco Harris in 1972. In all, Noll drafted 10 players who are now enshrined in the Hall of Fame including three in his first 20 picks and four of his first 38.

Two significant changes took place in 1970. The Steelers moved from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL. The Steelers also moved into a new home as Three Rivers Stadium opened. Previously, the Steelers had played home games at Forbes Field from 1933-57 and at both Forbes Field and Pitt Stadium from 1958-63. From 1964-69, the Steelers played at Pitt Stadium until Three Rivers opened in 1970.

Gradual improvement in the early 1970s resulted in the team's first division title in 1972 with an 11-3 record. In the first playoff game at Three Rivers, the Steelers defeated the Oakland Raiders 13-7 with Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception" in the final minute. Despite a 21-17 loss the following week to the undefeated Miami Dolphins, the Steelers had reached a new plateau.

1964
October 25 – The Steelers retire Ernie Stautner's No. 70, becoming the first jersey number to be retired in team history.

1970
August 28 – Pittsburgh defeats the New York Giants, 21-6, in the first preseason game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1969
January 27 – Chuck Noll is named head coach of the Steelers.

1969
January 28 – "Mean" Joe Greene is selected by the Steelers in the first round of the NFL Draft.

1970
The Pittsburgh Steelers move from the NFL Century Division to the AFC Central with the merger of the American Football League and the NFL.

1970
September 20 – The Steelers fall to the Houston Oilers 19-7 in their first regular-season game at Three Rivers Stadium.

1972
December 23 – The Steelers win their first playoff game in dramatic fashion with a 13-7 victory over the Oakland Raiders on Franco Harris' "Immaculate Reception."

STEELERS History

SUPER BOWL X, Steelers 21, Cowboys 17

It took 40 years for the Steelers to finally win their first division title, but over the next decade they achieved a level of success unprecedented in professional football.

In 1973, the Steelers won a wild card playoff berth with a 10-4 record. Oakland avenged their loss from the previous year, however, with a 33-14 defeat of the Steelers in the playoffs.

The Steelers won their first of six consecutive AFC Central titles in 1974 and marched past Buffalo (32-14) and Oakland (24-13) en route to their first Super Bowl appearance in Super Bowl IX. The fierce Pittsburgh defense led the way to a 16-6 victory over the Minnesota Vikings, and Art Rooney was presented the Vince Lombardi Trophy for the first time.

In 1975, the Steelers won 11 straight games to finish 12-2 and claimed their second consecutive division crown. After defeating Baltimore (28-10) and Oakland (16-10) in the playoffs, the Steelers became the third team in NFL history, joining Green Bay and Miami, to win back-to-back Super Bowls with a 21-17 defeat of the Dallas Cowboys in Super Bowl X.

The 1976 Steelers struggled to a 1-4 start before reeling off nine straight victories, including five shutouts, to win the division with a 10-4 mark. They defeated Baltimore 40-14 in the playoffs, but lost to Oakland 24-7 after both starting running backs, Franco Harris and Rocky Bleier, were injured. The following year the Steelers dropped a 34-21 decision to Denver in the first round of the playoffs after posting a 9-5 regular-season record.

In 1978, the Steelers made history after a league-best 14-2 regular season and playoff wins versus Denver (33-10) and Houston (34-5). Their 35-31 Super Bowl XIII win versus Dallas made the Steelers the first team to win three Super Bowls.

Yet another standard was set the following year when the 1979 Steelers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 31-19 in Super Bowl XIV to make them the first team in history to win four Super Bowls and the only team to win back-to-back Super Bowls twice. The Super Bowl victory followed a 12-4 regular season and playoff wins versus Miami (34-14) and Houston (27-13). With six consecutive AFC Central crowns, eight straight years of playoff appearances and four Super Bowl championships, the Steelers were tagged the "Team of the Decade" for the 1970s.

The 1970's Steelers were tagged

STEELERS History

1980s As the 1980s opened the Steelers stumbled, failing to make the playoffs in 1980 and 1981 with records of 9-7 and 8-8.

In 1982, the Steelers celebrated the team's 50th anniversary by qualifying for the playoffs with a 6-3 finish in a strike-interrupted season. During the season an anniversary banquet was held to commemorate the team's first 50 seasons and to honor the Steelers' all-time team as selected by fan voting. Thousands of fans were attracted to Pittsburgh for a week of activities and exhibits before the anniversary season was ended by San Diego's 31-28 win in the playoffs. This would be the last playoff game at Three Rivers Stadium until the 1992 season, a span of 10 years.

The 1983 Steelers won their eighth division title with a 10-6 record, but fell in the postseason, 38-10, to the Los Angeles Raiders. The following year the Steelers won their ninth division crown and the team advanced to the AFC Championship game with a 24-17 playoff win at Denver. A 45-28 loss to Miami in the AFC Championship game prevented the Steelers from a fifth Super Bowl appearance.

The Steelers' streak of 13 consecutive non-losing seasons came to an end in 1985 with a 7-9 finish, followed by a 6-10 record in 1986. Playoff hopes remained alive in 1987 until the Steelers lost their last two games to finish 8-7 during the strike-shortened season.

In 1988, the team suffered through its worst campaign in 19 years with a 5-11 record. The next season got off to a similar start with losses of 51-0 and 41-10 in the first two games as the offense failed to score in the first month of the season. But the young team fought back to finish 9-7 and earn a wild card playoff berth on the season's final weekend. An exciting 26-23 overtime playoff win in Houston was followed by a heartbreaking 24-23 divisional playoff loss at Denver in which the Steelers led until the final minutes.

1990s A 9-7 finish in 1990 left the Steelers in a three-way tie for the AFC Central lead, but they were eliminated from playoff contention by a 2-4 division record. The 1991 team finished second in the division despite a 7-9 record, winning the last two games under Noll at home against the Cincinnati Bengals and Cleveland Browns.

On December 26, 1991, Noll announced his retirement from football after 39 consecutive seasons, the last 23 as the Steelers' head coach, which made him one of only four men to coach the same team for 23 consecutive years. He left as the fifth-winningest coach in NFL history with an overall record of 209-156-1, and as the only coach to win four Super Bowls. Noll was rewarded in 1993 with his election to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in his first year of eligibility.

A new era began in 1992 with the retirement of Noll and the arrival of 34-year-old Bill Cowher, the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time he assumed control. In the first season of the new era, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984 with an 11-5 record. While the team enjoyed new-found success, Cowher was recognized by the Associated Press as the NFL's Coach of the Year and six Steelers were selected to the Pro Bowl, the most in more than a decade.

Under Cowher the Steelers became the first AFC team since the 1970 merger to claim its 10th division title. Their 11-5 record equaled the best in the conference and gave the Steelers home field advantage throughout the playoffs. However, in the first postseason game at Three Rivers Stadium in exactly 10 years, the Steelers were defeated by eventual AFC Champion Buffalo, 24-3.

Steelers History

In 1992, 34-year-old Bill Cowher became the National Football League's youngest head coach at the time. In his first season, the Steelers won the AFC Central division crown for the first time since 1984.

In 1993, the Steelers earned a wild card playoff berth, marking their first consecutive playoff appearances since the 1983-84 seasons. A 9-7 record was good for second place in the division, but the season ended in a 27-24 overtime loss at Kansas City in the AFC Wild Card game.

The 1994 Steelers won seven of their final eight regular-season games for their strongest finish since 1978. They captured their second division title in three years with an AFC-best 12-4 record. After a 29-9 victory over the Cleveland Browns in the first round of the playoffs, Pittsburgh hosted its first AFC Championship game since 1979. The game went down to the wire and the Steelers lost to the San Diego Chargers 17-13.

1995 AFC Championship, Steelers 20, Colts 16

At 38, Bill Cowher became the youngest head coach to lead his team to a Super Bowl appearance in 1995. Along the way, Cowher's team captured their third AFC Central division title in four years, made their fourth straight playoff appearance and won the Steelers' first AFC title since 1979. After a first-round bye, they defeated the Buffalo Bills (40-21) and the Indianapolis Colts (20-16), before losing to the Dallas Cowboys 27-17 in Super Bowl XXX in Tempe, Ariz.

In 1996, the Steelers finished 10-6 and earned their fifth consecutive trip to the playoffs. Cowher ended the season with 57 career victories, ranking him as the second winningest coach in team history, behind his predecessor Noll.

The Steelers captured their fourth consecutive AFC Central title in 1997 while posting an 11-5 record. They were one play away from earning their sixth Super Bowl appearance but lost to Denver 24-21 in the AFC Championship game.

In 1998, the Steelers finished a disappointing 7-9, losing their last five regular-season games and missing the playoffs for the first time under Cowher.

The Steelers suffered their second consecutive losing season in 1999, when their record fell to 6-10.

STEELERS History

2000s After starting the 2000 season with a 0-3 record, the Steelers rebounded to finish the year at 9-7 and barely missed the playoffs.

However, 2000 will be remembered most for being the final season for the Steelers at Three Rivers Stadium. The Steelers were 4-4 during their final season at Three Rivers Stadium, including victories in four of their final six home games. The Steelers won their final game at Three Rivers 24-3 against the Washington Redskins on Dec. 16.

The Steelers finished 31 seasons at Three Rivers Stadium (1970-2000) with a 182-72 home record, including the postseason. The Steelers recorded their largest regular-season home attendance figures (440,428) since 1998 in the final season, including a season-high 58,183 fans during the final game in stadium history.

The Steelers began a new era in team history in 2001 with the opening of their new stadium, Heinz Field. The Steelers posted an AFC-best 13-3 regular-season record, including a 7-1 mark at home, and advanced to the AFC Championship Game.

The inaugural game at Heinz Field was originally scheduled to be a nationally televised Sunday Night game on Sept. 16. However, the September 11 terrorist attacks on America forced the NFL to postpone all games that weekend — which were eventually rescheduled for the end of the season. As a result, the Steelers opened Heinz Field on Sunday, Oct. 7 with a 16-7 win against the Cincinnati Bengals.

The Steelers defeated the defending Super Bowl Champion Baltimore Ravens 27-10 in the AFC Divisional Playoffs, in the first-ever postseason game played at Heinz Field. However, they suffered a disappointing 24-17 loss at home in the AFC Championship Game to the eventual Super Bowl-champion New England Patriots.

After an 0-2 start in 2002, the Steelers rallied to make the playoffs for the second consecutive season. However, the team's Super Bowl hopes ended when they lost, 34-31, in overtime to the Tennessee Titans on the road.

The Steelers began the 2003 season with a 34-15 victory against AFC North rival Baltimore Ravens. However, the team never regained that magic and finished the year with a 6-10 record and missed the playoffs for the first time in three seasons.

The Steelers set a team record in 2004 by becoming the first AFC team to win 15 games (15-1) in the regular season. They ultimately advanced to the AFC Championship Game where they lost to the New England Patriots, 41-27. Nine Steelers were selected to play in the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl, the team's most since the 1979 season.

Pittsburgh found itself sitting at 7-5 after 12 games in 2005, but rallied to win its final four regular-season games to earn the AFC's sixth seed in the playoffs. The Steelers then won an unprecedented three straight road playoff games to gain a berth in Super Bowl XL in Detroit versus the Seattle Seahawks.

Art Rooney II was named President of the Pittsburgh Steelers in 2003.

STEELERS History

MIKE TOMLIN was hired on January 22, 2007.

The Steelers captured their fifth Super Bowl title with a 21-10 victory over the Seahawks as wide receiver Hines Ward was named MVP, finishing with five receptions for 123 yards. Ward also hauled in a game-clinching 43-yard TD pass from Antwaan Randle El on a gadget play midway through the fourth quarter.

The 2006 season saw the Bill Cowher era come to an end with the Steelers finishing the season winning six of their final eight games to post an 8-8 record on the year.

On January 5, 2006, Bill Cowher resigned as Steelers head coach with a 161-99-1 overall record, second-best in team history.

The Steelers hired 34-year old Mike Tomlin as the team's head coach on January, 22, 2007, becoming the NFL's youngest head coach at the time.

Tomlin became the second first-year coach in team history to make the playoffs in 2007. The Steelers finished with a 10-6 overall record and won the AFC North division title.

Tomlin became the first coach in franchise history to win a division title in each of his first two seasons when the Steelers captured their second consecutive AFC North division title with a 12-4 record in 2008. They went on to defeat the San Diego Chargers and Baltimore Ravens to gain a berth in Super Bowl XLIII in Tampa, Fla,. versus the Arizona Cardinals.

The Steelers became the first NFL franchise to capture six Super Bowl titles when they defeated the Cardinals 27-23. With the victory, Tomlin became the youngest coach to win a Super Bowl in NFL history (36 years, 323 days). Wide receiver Santonio Holmes was named MVP after hauling in the game-winning six-yard touchdown pass from Ben Roethlisberger with 35 seconds remaining in regulation.

The Steelers added to their legacy, making it all the way to Super Bowl XLV after a 12-4 record during the 2010 season. The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell to the Green Bay Packers 31-25. Despite the loss, the Steelers still hold the NFL record for most Super Bowl victories with six.

The team donned a CHN commemorative patch in honor of the late Chuck Noll during the 2014 season. The team also retired Joe Greene's No. 75, all during its year of celebrating the team's 40th anniversary of its first championship with a uniform patch in 2014.

SUPER BOWL IX

PITTSBURGH 16 MINNESOTA 6

JANUARY 12, 1975 TULANE STADIUM (80,997)

NEW ORLEANS — The Steelers made their first appearance in the Super Bowl and captured their first NFL Championship with a 16-6 victory over Minnesota.

The veteran Vikings, meanwhile, had been to the Super Bowl twice before. The Vikings had a savvy leader in QB Fran Tarkenton. The Steelers had a strong defense but their quarterback, Terry Bradshaw, was unproven.

The first half was dominated by defense. Pittsburgh concentrated on the middle of the Minnesota offensive line. One defensive tackle, Ernie Holmes, played over Vikings' Mick Tingelhoff, while the other tackle, Joe Greene, lined up at an angle pointed directly at Tingelhoff. Holmes sometimes took on the Vikings' center directly, allowing Greene to knife through and pursue Tarkenton. At other times, Greene would smash into Tingelhoff while Holmes looped behind him.

The only score in the first half was a safety registered by the Steelers. Fran Tarkenton fumbled a handoff to Dave Osborn, scrambled to recover the ball in the end zone, and was downed by Pittsburgh's Dwight White.

Leading 2-0, Pittsburgh kicked to Minnesota to open the second half and the Vikings' Bill Brown fumbled and Marv Kellum recovered for Pittsburgh at the Minnesota 30. The Steelers took four plays to go the distance, with Franco Harris taking the ball in from the nine-yard line.

Harris was named game MVP. He ran for 158 yards on 34 tries, while Rocky Bleier added 65 yards on 17 carries. Minnesota, meanwhile, managed only 17 yards rushing.

Denied on the ground, the Vikings weren't much better in the air. Tarkenton, under constant pressure from Greene, Holmes, White and L.C. Greenwood, completed only 11-of-26 attempts for 102 yards—an average of fewer than four yards per pass.

Despite their dominance, Pittsburgh's 9-0 lead was far from safe, and it narrowed to 9-6 in the final quarter when Matt Blair blocked Bobby Walden's punt, and Terry Brown recovered it in the end zone.

After that touchdown, Pittsburgh put the game on ice with a drive that began on its 34. The big play of the drive was a 30-yard toss from Bradshaw to Larry Brown, who later scored the final touchdown.

Soon after the ensuing kickoff, Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner intercepted a Tarkenton pass, and the Steelers held possession until the game was nearly over.

SUPER BOWL X — PITTSBURGH 21 — DALLAS 17

JANUARY 18, 1976 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (80,197)

MIAMI — What were, at the time, the two most popular teams in the NFL met in Super Bowl X, and the contrast between their styles was as great as the hue of their jerseys.

The glitzy, white-clad Dallas Cowboys—"America's Team"—combined a high-tech offense and a state-of-the-art Flex Defense to put on a dazzling show each Sunday. They were easy to like, and for once, they even had something of an underdog aura, having reached the Super Bowl as a Wild Card team. The black-clad Pittsburgh Steelers, out to defend their Super Bowl victory of the year before, lived by a Steel-hard defense occasionally spelled by a grind-it-out running attack that would have been at home in the NFL of the 1930s.

The Cowboys struck first when Roger Staubach zeroed in on Drew Pearson for a 29-yard touchdown pass.

Before the end of the first quarter, Pittsburgh evened the score on a seven-yard pass from Terry Bradshaw to Randy Grossman. Setting up the score was a 32-yard pass to Lynn Swann, whose health was questionable because of a concussion he had suffered in the AFC Championship Game. Swann outleaped a Dallas defender, then magically kept both feet inside the sideline to make the catch.

Dallas reclaimed the lead at 10-7 only 15 seconds into the second quarter when Toni Fritsch booted a 36-yard field goal.

Later, Pittsburgh's Roy Gerela, playing at less than 100 percent because of a cracked rib he suffered making a tackle on the opening kickoff, shanked a field-goal try and Dallas went to the locker room with a 10-7 lead.

Defense continued to dominate in the scoreless third quarter. Pittsburgh sacked Staubach seven times during the game and forced him to scramble on numerous occasions. Moreover, they pressured him into an uncharacteristic three interceptions.

One of the interceptions set up another field-goal try by Gerela, but he pulled it left from 33 yards. Dallas' Cliff Harris mockingly patted him on the helmet, only to be unceremoniously dumped on his hip pads by irate Steeler Jack Lambert. The inspired Steelers dominated after that.

In the fourth quarter, Steelers' reserve Reggie Harrison blocked Mitch Hoopes's punt. The ball rolled through the end zone for a safety to cut the Cowboys' lead to 10-9. Gerela, who'd donned a corset to protect his ribs, regained his kicking touch with field goals of 36 and 18 yards to put the Steelers in front 15-10.

With 3:02 left in the game, Bradshaw lofted a long pass to game MVP Swann, who caught the ball at the five and took it over the goal line to complete a 64-yard lightning strike. Swann finished the day with 161 yards on four catches, a 40.3 average-per-catch. Gerela missed the extra point.

It took Staubach only 1:14 to get the touchdown back, completing a drive with a 34-yard bulls-eye to Percy Howard—the only pass Howard caught during his entire career.

Terry Hanratty replaced Bradshaw, still woozy from the hit suffered after his touchdown pass to Swann, but the Steelers were stalled on a fourth-and-nine at the Dallas 41 with almost a minute and a half to go. Coach Noll feared a blocked kick and called for a Rocky Bleier run that gained only two yards. Noll was gambling that his defense could stop the Cowboys.

Trailing only 21-17, Staubach had the ball back with more time than he usually needed to negotiate 61 yards. The Cowboys reached Pittsburgh's 38. With five seconds left, Staubach launched his final pass into the end zone. Pittsburgh's Mike Wagner batted the ball, which was intercepted by Glen Edwards and the Steelers had their second consecutive Super Bowl victory.

PITTSBURGH 35 DALLAS 31

JANUARY 21, 1979 MIAMI ORANGE BOWL (78,656)

MIAMI — This was more than just the first rematch in Super Bowl history: It re-staged what many still consider the most enjoyable and dramatic Super Bowl battle to that point. Opportunity—recognizing it and capitalizing on it—was the theme. Failure to embrace it would play a hand, too. It was the Steelers, though, who managed a 35-31 victory.

Dallas had its chances. The Cowboys took a 14-7 lead in the second quarter when linebacker Mike Hegman simply took the ball away from Steelers' QB Terry Bradshaw and ran 37 yards to score. But Bradshaw countered immediately with a 75-yard touchdown strike to John Stallworth.

In the third quarter, trailing 21-14, Dallas marched from its 42 to the Steelers' 10. On third-and-three, Cowboys' QB Roger Staubach saw TE Jackie Smith alone in the end zone. Smith slipped and fell reaching for Staubach's pass and Dallas settled for a 27-yard field goal.

Pittsburgh scored two touchdowns early in the fourth quarter—a 22-yard run by Franco Harris and an 18-yard pass from Bradshaw to Swann. Harris' score followed a pass-interference call against Dallas CB Benny Barnes, who was covering Swann. The mistake cost the Cowboys 33 yards. Dallas did score touchdowns with 2:27 and 22 seconds to play, on passes from Staubach to TE Billy Joe Dupree and Butch Johnson, but Pittsburgh held on to win, 35-31. The two teams set a Super Bowl record for points scored.

With the victory, the Steelers became the first team to win three Super Bowls.

PITTSBURGH 31 LOS ANGELES 19

JANUARY 20, 1980 ROSE BOWL STADIUM (103,985)

PASADENA, Calif. — There was a moment of heroism and self-sacrifice when an old warrior, Los Angeles Rams' Jack Youngblood, announced his intention to play in his team's first Super Bowl despite a fractured leg.

There was a rush of "What if?" euphoria as the underdog Rams took a 19-17 lead into the fourth quarter.

And there was cold reality: Pittsburgh, a team with as much patience as talent, struck quickly and surely for two touchdowns in the fourth quarter and it was over. The 31-19 victory was the Steelers' fourth in the Super Bowl in only six seasons.

The signature image of Super Bowl XIV is of Steelers' John Stallworth at the Rams' 32, looking back over his head for a lofty Terry Bradshaw pass, catching it in stride just over the outstretched arms of Rams' Rod Perry, and continuing into the end zone for a 73-yard touchdown.

The Steelers had taken the lead and then surrendered it in the third quarter. Bradshaw hit Lynn Swann over the middle for a 47-yard score. The Rams came back with a 24-yard halfback pass from Lawrence McCutcheon to Ron Smith that made it 19-17 before Bradshaw-to-Stallworth put Pittsburgh ahead for good.

Los Angeles intercepted Bradshaw three times, but it was the Steelers' lone interception—by Jack Lambert—that punctuated the ending. With the score 24-19 and the Rams driving, Lambert intercepted a pass from QB Vince Ferragamo at the Pittsburgh 14.

For the second year in a row, Bradshaw was named the game's most valuable player after passing for 309 yards and two touchdowns.

DALLAS 27 PITTSBURGH 17

JANUARY 28, 1996 SUN DEVIL STADIUM (76,347)

TEMPE, Ariz. — After producing 10 lopsided outcomes in its last 12 editions, the Super Bowl was due for some drama. Pittsburgh was up to the task and made a game of it, but the game turned on two interceptions by the game's Most Valuable Player, Dallas' Larry Brown as the Steelers fell to the Cowboys, 27-17.

The first of Brown's interceptions came midway through the third quarter. No Steelers receiver was within 10 yards when Brown accepted Neil O'Donnell's misfired pass at the Cowboys' 38 and returned it 44 yards to the Steelers' 18. Troy Aikman's pass to Michael Irvin took Dallas to the one, and Emmitt Smith scored to give the Cowboys a 20-7 lead.

The Steelers made it 20-10 with Norm Johnson's 46-yard field goal, and then recovered an onside kick. They reduced the gap to 20-17 when Bam Morris scored from the one with 6:36 to play. With 4:15 left, Pittsburgh had the ball again at its 32 after forcing Dallas to punt.

Two plays later, Brown intercepted O'Donnell at the Steelers' 39 and returned it to the six. Smith scored from the four yard-line two plays later, and the Cowboys had locked up their record-tying fifth Super Bowl. The Steelers never led, and Dallas scored on its first three possessions— a three-yard pass from Aikman to tight end Jay Novacek and two field goals by Chris Boniol—for a 13-0 lead. Shortly before halftime, the Steelers made it 13-7 when O'Donnell threw a six-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen.

The statistical irony of the day was that O'Donnell entered the game as the NFL's career leader in fewest interceptions per pass attempt. On the game's final play, he was intercepted for the third time.

PITTSBURGH 21 SEATTLE 10

FEBRUARY 5, 2006 FORD FIELD (68,206)

DETROIT, Mich. — Pittsburgh won its fifth Super Bowl title as it captured a 21-10 victory over the Seattle Seahawks at Ford Field. The Steelers' fifth title matched the most in NFL history (S.F. 49ers and Dallas Cowboys).

Backed by a predominantly Pittsburgh crowd, the Steelers were led by Super Bowl MVP Hines Ward, who finished with a game-high 123 receiving yards on five catches (24.6 avg.) with one touchdown.

Pittsburgh struggled offensively in the first quarter as it failed to gain a first down, but found itself down only 3-0 after Seattle's Josh Brown booted a 47-yard field goal with 22 seconds remaining in the opening period.

The Steelers' offense came to life briefly on their first drive of the second quarter, but it was stalled as Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by the Seahawks' Michael Boulware.

Pittsburgh's defense continued to buckle down and halt any Seattle chances of extending its lead throughout the second quarter.

The Steelers finally got on the board late in the half as Roethlisberger dove into the end zone for a one-yard touchdown run, giving Pittsburgh a 7-3 halftime lead. It was his second postseason rushing touchdown and the first-ever by a Steelers' quarterback in a Super Bowl.

Pittsburgh stretched its lead to 14-3 on the second play of the second half as Willie Parker darted 75 yards for a score. The 75-yard run was the longest in Super Bowl history, surpassing L.A. Raider Marcus Allen's 74-yard run against Washington in Super Bowl XVIII.

After a missed field goal by Brown on Seattle's first drive of the second half, the Steelers appeared on the verge of breaking the game open by driving to the Seahawks' seven-yard line on the ensuing drive. However, Roethlisberger threw an interception at the four-yard line to Kelly Herndon, which he returned 76 yards to the Pittsburgh 20. Three plays later Seattle scored on a 16-yard pass from Matt Hasselbeck to Jerramy Stevens to cut the lead to 14-10.

The Seahawks had an opportunity to take the lead early in the fourth quarter before Hasselbeck was picked off by Ike Taylor at the Steelers' five-yard line. Taylor finished with a team-best seven tackles.

Pittsburgh all but sealed the game on a gadget play. Antwaan Randle El took a reverse handoff and threw a 43-yard strike to Ward, pushing the Pittsburgh lead to 21-10 with 8:56 left in the game. Randle El's touchdown pass was the first by a wide receiver in Super Bowl history.

The Steelers' defense clamped down on the final two Seattle possessions to post the victory. Pittsburgh's defense racked up three sacks.

Roethlisberger became the youngest starting quarterback to win a Super Bowl and finished 9-of-21 for 123 yards. Parker finished with a team-high 93 yards on 10 carries, while Jerome Bettis added 43 yards on 14 rushes.

PITTSBURGH 27 ARIZONA 23

FEBRUARY 1, 2009 RAYMOND JAMES STADIUM (70,774)

TAMPA, Fla. — Trailing by three points with only 2:30 left in the fourth quarter, Ben Roethlisberger led the Steelers on an eight-play, 78-yard scoring drive, punctuated by a six-yard touchdown pass to Santonio Holmes to clinch their NFL-record sixth Lombardi Trophy with a 27-23 victory over the Arizona Cardinals in Super Bowl XLIII.

Pittsburgh, which led most of the evening, struck first after Arizona deferred the opening kick. Jeff Reed booted an 18-yard field goal on the opening drive to make it 3-0.

Gary Russell increased that lead to 10-0 when he plunged in from one-yard out early in the second quarter. Arizona answered that score as Kurt Warner hit Ben Patrick in the back of the end zone on a one-yard scoring strike to cut the Pittsburgh lead to 10-7.

Arizona appeared as if they were going to take their first lead late in the first half, but James Harrison intercepted Warner at the goal-line, raced 100 yards and dove into the end zone with two Cardinals on his back for the longest interception return in Super Bowl history, and a 17-7 advantage at the half.

A 21-yard field goal by Reed in the third quarter upped the lead to 20-7.

Arizona got back onto the scoreboard midway through the fourth quarter as Warner tossed another one-yard score, this time to Larry Fitzgerald, cutting the Steelers' lead to 20-14. A costly holding penalty in the end zone against Steelers' Justin Hartwig gave the Cardinals a safety, further decreasing the Steelers' advantage to 20-16.

On the second play following the ensuing free kick, Warner found Fitzgerald on a 64-yard scoring strike through the middle of the Steelers' defense to give Arizona its first lead of the night, 23-20.

The Steelers were backed up to their own 12-yard line on the next drive, but Roethlisberger promptly completed four-of-six passes, three to Holmes, including a 40-yarder that moved the ball to the Arizona six. On second-and-goal, Roethlisberger threaded a perfect pass through three defenders and Holmes kept his toes in bounds for a six-yard touchdown reception and a 27-23 Steelers' lead with 35 seconds left.

Arizona had one more chance, but LaMarr Woodley sacked Warner, forcing a fumble to essentially end the game.

Holmes was named the game's MVP after catching nine passes for 131 yards (14.6 avg.) with one touchdown. Roethlisberger finished 21-of-30 for 256 yards with one touchdown and one interception.

Defensively, Woodley recorded both Steelers' sacks, giving him two sacks in each of his four postseason games, an NFL record.

GREEN BAY 31 PITTSBURGH 25

FEBRUARY 6, 2011 COWBOYS STADIUM (103,219)

ARLINGTON, Texas — The Steelers could not overcome an early 18-point deficit and fell short in their quest for their seventh Super Bowl victory, losing to the Green Bay Packers 31-25 in Super Bowl XLV.

The Packers struck first when Aaron Rodgers found Jordy Nelson for a 29-yard touchdown pass late in the first quarter to give Green Bay a 7-0 lead. Only 24 seconds later, Steelers' QB Ben Roethlisberger was picked off by Nick Collins, who returned it 37 yards for a touchdown to give the Packers a 14-0 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The Steelers scored early in the second quarter when Shaun Suisham connected from 33 yards to cut the Packers' lead to 14-3. On the Steelers' next possession, Roethlisberger was picked off again, and on the Packers' ensuing drive, Rodgers found Greg Jennings for a 21-yard touchdown to put Green Bay ahead 21-3.

The Steelers would cut the lead to 21-10 when Hines Ward caught an eight-yard touchdown pass from Roethlisberger late in the first half. Ward finished the game with seven catches for 78 yards and one touchdown.

Pittsburgh cut the lead to 21-17 in the third quarter when Rashard Mendenhall scored from eight yards out. Mendenhall finished with a game-high 63 yards rushing and one touchdown.

The Steelers' defense forced the Packers to punt on every third-quarter possession, and the offense looked to take the lead. However, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Mendenhall fumbled and Green Bay recovered. The Packers marched down the field and Rodgers found Jennings again, this time for an eight-yard score, increasing their lead to 28-17. Rodgers finished the game with 304 yards passing with three touchdowns and no interceptions.

With 7:34 left in the fourth quarter, Roethlisberger found Mike Wallace for a 25-yard touchdown pass, and with a two-point conversion, the Steelers were only down 28-25.

On the Packers' next drive, Mason Crosby connected from 23 yards out to give Green Bay a six-point lead. The Steelers still had time, taking over with two minutes left in the game, but they failed to convert a fourth-and-five from their own 33-yard line, allowing Green Bay to win their fourth Super Bowl.

John Bradshaw Butler played in 103 games as a cornerback for the Pittsburgh Steelers and was selected to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1950s. When he retired, Butler ranked as the NFL's second all-time leader with 52 career interceptions. The Pittsburgh native registered 827 return yards on interceptions, returning four for touchdowns. Butler also returned one fumble for a touchdown. Despite recording 25 interceptions in his first four seasons, Butler was not selected to his first of four career Pro Bowls until 1955. A season later he was named second-team All-NFL and would go on to earn first-team All-NFL honors in each of the following three seasons.

DERMONTTI DAWSON

Center (1988-2000) ELECTED: 2012

Dermontti Fara Dawson was a second-round draft pick by the Steelers in 1988 and played guard as a rookie before replacing Hall of Famer Mike Webster at center in 1989. Dawson started for the majority of a 13-year career that saw him play in 184 games during the regular season, including 170 consecutive, the third longest streak in franchise history. He was named to seven consecutive Pro Bowls (1993-99), was a first team All-Pro for six straight years (1993-98) and was named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s. During Dawson's 13-year career, which ties for the third-most seasons played in franchise history, he helped the Steelers win five division titles, appear in three AFC Championships and one Super Bowl, and record a winning record nine times.

JEROME BETTIS

Running Back (1996-2005) ELECTED: 2015

Jerome Abram Bettis, Sr., "The Bus" was traded to the Steelers from the St. Louis Rams prior to the start of the 1996 season. He played in 192 regular-season games in his 13-year career, registering the sixth-most rushing yards (13,662) in NFL history. He eclipsed the 100-yard mark 61 times in the regular season and three times in the postseason. Bettis scored 78 rushing touchdowns as a Steeler, the second-most in franchise history. His career accolades include six Pro Bowls, first-team All-Pro twice, second-team All-Pro once and he was named the NFL's Comeback Player of the Year in 1996. He ended his career with a victory in his hometown of Detroit, Mich., as the Steelers captured their fifth Lombardi trophy in Super Bowl XL.

KEVIN GREENE

Linebacker (1993-95) ELECTED: 2016

Prior to the start of the 1993 season, the Steelers signed free agent Kevin Greene, who would play three seasons for Pittsburgh. As a Steeler, Greene recorded 35.5 sacks from 1993-95, which are the second-most sacks in any three-year span in team history. In his 15-year NFL career, Greene totaled 160 sacks, 26 fumble recoveries, five interceptions, and recorded three safeties. His 160 sacks still rank third all-time in NFL history. Greene was a three-time first-team All-Pro (1989, 1994 and 1996) and a five-time Pro Bowler (1989, 1994-96 and 1998). He was also named to the NFL's All-Decade Team of the 1990s.

Note: Other Hall of Famers who spent part of their careers with the Steelers include: Tony Dungy (Player 1977-78, Coach 1981-88, elected 2016), Cal Hubbard (Player 1936, elected 1963), Marion Motley (Player 1955, elected 1968), Earle (Greasy) Neale (Coach 1943, elected 1969), Bill Hewitt (Player 1943, elected 1971), Len Dawson (Player 1957-1959, elected 1987) and Dick LeBeau (Coached from 1992-1996, 2004-14, elected 2010).
